

Enter a Company of Mutinons Citizens, with Stakes, Clubs, and other weapons.

I. Citizen.

Efore we proceed any further, heare me speake. All. Speake, speake. I.Cu., You are all resolu'd rather to dy then to famish?

All. Reiolu'd, resolu'd.

1. Cir. First you know, Cains Martins is chiefe enemy to the people.

All. Weknow'r, weknow'r.

I. Cit. Let vs kill him, and wee'l haue Corne at our own price. Is't s Verdict?

All.No more talking on't; Let it be done, away, away 2.Cut. One word, good Citizens.

1. Cit. We are accounted poore Citizens, the Patriclans good: what Authority furfets one, would releeue vs. If they would yeelde vs but the superfluitie while it were wholfome, wee might gueffe they releeved vs humanely : But they thinke we are too deere, the leannesse that afflicts vs, the object of our milery, is as an inuentory to particularize their abundance, our sufferance is a gaine to them. Let vs reuenge this with our Pikes, ere we become Rakes. For the Gods know, I speake this in hunger for Bread, not in thirit for Revenge.

2. Cit. Would you proceede especially against Cause MATTINS.

All. Againft him first : He's a very dog to the Commonalty.

2. Cit. Confider you what Seruices he ha's done for his Country #

I.Cit. Very well, and could bee content to give him good report for't, but that hee payes himfelfe with beeing proud.

All. Nay, but speak not maliciously.

I.Cit. I fay vnto you, what he hath done Famouslie, he did it to that end : though loft conferenc'd men can be content to fay it was for his Countrey, he did it to please his Mother, and to be partly proud, which he is, even to the altitude of his vertue.

2. Cir. What he cannot helpe in his Nature, you account a Vice in him ; You must in no way fay he is couctous.

1. Cit. If I must not, I neede not be barren of Accusations he hath faults (with furplus) to tyre in repetition. Showts within.

What fhowes are these? The other fide a'th City is rifers: why flay we prating heere? To th'Capitoll, All. Come,come.

1 Cit. Soft, who comes here? Enter Menenius Agrippa.

2 Cit. Worthy Menenius Agrippa, one that hath alwayes lou'd the people.

1 Cu. He's one honeft enough, wold al the reft wer fo. Men. What work's my Countiemen in hand ? Where go you with Bats and Clubs? The matter Speake i pray you.

z Cit. Our buildes is not enknowne to th'Senat, they haue had inkling this fortnight what we intend to do, w now wee'l thew em in deeds : they fay poore Suters have ftrong breaths, they thal know we have ftrong arms too.

Menen. Why Mafters, my good Friends, mine honeft Neighbours, will you vndo your felues?

2 Cit. We cannot Sir, we are vndone already. Men. I tell you briends, moft charitable care Haue the Patricians of you for your wants. Your fuffering in this dearch, you may as well Strike at the Heaven with your flaves, as lift them Against the Roman State, whose course will on The way it takes : cracking ten thouland Curbes Ofmore ftrong linke ailunder, then can euer Appeare in your impediment. Forshe Dearth, The Gods, not the Patricians make it, and Your knees to them (not armes) must helpe. Alacke, You are transported by Calamity Thether, where more attends you, and you flander The Helmes o'th States who care for you like Fathers, When you curfe them, as Enemies.

2 Cit. Care for vs? True indeed, they nere cat'd for vs yer. Suffer vs to famish, and their Store-houses crammed with Graine : Make Edicts for Vlurie, to support Vlu-rers; repeale daily any wholfome Act established against the rich, and prouide more piercing Statutes daily, to chaine vp and refiraine the poore. If the Warres care va not vppe, they wills and there's allthe love they beare Menen. Either you muft Confesse your felues wondrous Malicious, Or be accus'd of Folly. I shall tell you A pretty Tale, it may be you haue heard it, But fince it ferues my purpofe, I will venture To scale's a little more.

& Citizen. Well,

Ile heare it Sir : yet you must not thinke To fobbe off our difgrace with a tale : .

But and't please you deliuer.

Men. There was a time, when all the bodies members Rebell'd against the Belly; thus accus'd it : That onely like a Gulfe it did remaine

1'th

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 2 I'th midd'ft a th'body, idle and vnactiue, Still cubbording the Viand, neuer bearing Thou Rafcall, that art worft in blood to run, Lead' fairft to win fome vantage. But make you ready your fliffe bats and clubs, Like labour with the reft, where th'other miruments. Did fee, and heare, deuife, inftruct, walko, feele, Rome, and her Rats, are at the point of battell, 33 And mutually participate, did minister The one fide muß haue baile. Vnto the appetite; and affection common Of the whole body, the Belly aniwer'd. Enter Cains Martins. 2. Cit. Well fir, what answer made the Belly. Hayle, Noble Afartim. Men. Sir, I shall tell you with a kinde of Smile, Mar. Thanks. What's the matter you diffentious rogues Which ne're came from the Lungs, but euen thus : That rubbing the poore Itch of your Opinion, For looke you I may make the belly Smile, Make your felues Scabs. 2. Cit. We have ever your good word. As well as speake, it taintingly replyed To'th' discontented Members, the mutinous parts Mar.He that will give good words to thee, wil flatter That enuied his receite : euen io most fitly, Beneath abhorring. What would you have, you Curres, That like nor Peace, nor Warre ? The one affrights you, As you maligue our Senators, for that The other makes you proud. He that truffs to you, They are not fuch as you. 2.C:t. Your Bellies answer : What Where he fhould finde you Lyons, findes you Hares : The Kingly crown'd head, the vigilant eye, Where Foxes, Geele you are : No furer, no, The Counfailor Heart, the Armeour Souldier, Then is the coale of fire vpon the Ice, Our Steed the Legge, the Tongue our Trumpeter, Or Hailftone in the Sun. Your Veitue is, With other Muniments and petty helpes To make him worthy, whole offence fubdues him, In this our Fabricke, if that they. And curle that luftice did it. Who defenues Greatnes, Alen. What then? Foreme, this Fellow speakes. Deferues your Hate : and your Affections are What then? What then? A fickmans Appetite ; who defires most that 2 Cit. Should by the Cormorant belly be reftrain'd, Which would encreafe his cuill. He that depends Who is the finke a th'body. Vpon your fauours, fwimmes with finnes of Leader Men. Well, what then? 2.Cit. The former Agents, if they did complaine, And hewes downe Oakes, with rufhes. Hang ye:truft ye? With every Minute you do change a Minde, And call him Noble, that was now your Hate : What could the Belly antwer? Men. 1 will tell you, Him vilde, that was your Gailand. What's the matter, If you'l bestow a small (of what you have little) That in these several places of the Civie, You cry against the Noble Senare, who Patience awhile; you'ft heare the Bellies answer. 2 Cit. Y'are long about it. (Voder the Gods) keepe you in awe, which elfe Alen. Note me this good Friend; Would tende on one another? What's their feeking? Your most graue Belly was deliberate, Men. For Corne at their ownerates, wherof they fay Notrafh like his Accufers, and thus answered. The Citie is weal flor'd. Mar. Hang 'em : They fay ? S They'l fit by th'fite, and prefame to know Tiue is it my Incorporate Friends (quotline) That I receive the general Food at fift Which you do live vpon : and fit it is, What's done i'th Capitoll : Who's like to rife, Becaule I am the Stole-houfe, and the Shop Who thrives, & who declines: Side factions, & give out Of the whole Body. But, if you do remember, Coniecturall Marriages, making parties firong, I fon lacta ough the Rivers of your blood And teebling fuch as frand not in their liking, Each to the Court, the Heart, to th feate o'tl'Braine, Below their cobled Shooes. They fay ther's giain enough? And through the Crankes and Offices of man Would the Nobility lay afide their ruth The throngeft Nervies, and finall inferiour Veines And let me vie my Sword, I'de make a Quarrie From me recent that naturall competencie With thousands of these quarter'd flaues, as high Whereby they live. And though that all at once As I could picke my Lance. (You my good Friends, this fayes the Belly) marke me. Menen. Nay these are almost thoroughly perswaded: 2.Cu. Hur, well, well. Men. Though all at once, cannot For though abundantly they lacke diferetion Yet are they passing Cowardly. But I befeech you, What fayes the other Troope? See what I do deliuer out to each, Mar They are diffolu'd : Hang em; Yet I can make my Awdit vp, that all They faid they sorre an hungry, figh'd forth Prouerbes That Hunger broke ftone wals: that dogges muft eate From me do backe receiue the Flowre of all, And leaue me bar the Bran, Whar fay you too't ? 2 Cu. It was an antiwer, how apply you this? That mease was made for mouths. That the gods fent not Men. The Senators of Rome, are this good Belly, Come for the Richmen onely : With thefe threds Add you the nutioeus Members : For examine They vented their Complainings, which being answer'd And a petition granted them, a Brange one, Their Coustailes, and their Cares; difgeft things rightly, To breake the heart of generofity, Touching the Werlea'th Common, you shall finde No publique benefit which you receive And make bold power looke pale, they threw their caps But it proceeds, or comes from them to you, As they would hang them on the hornes a'th Mocne, And no way from your felues. What do you thinke? Shooting their Emulation. Moren. What is graunted them? You, the great Toe of this Affembly ? 2.Cit. I the great Toe ? Why the great Toe ? Mar. Fine Tribunes to defend their vulgar wildoms Men. For that being one o'th lowest, baseft, poorest Of their owne choice. One's Innius Brutus, Of this most wife Rebellion, thou goest formost : Sicinius Velutus, and I know not. Sdeath, r

The Time and	of Coriolanus. 3
The rabble should have first vnroo's the City	A place below the first : for what milcarries
the fo preusyl'd with me ; it will in time	Shall be the Generals fault, though he performe
Vin ypon power, and throw forth greater Theames	To th'viment of a man, and giddy centure or Infurrections arguing.	Will then cry out of Martins : Oh, if he
Menen. This is firsinge.	Had borne the bufineffe.
Mar. Go get you home you Fragments.	Sicin. Besides, if chings go well,
Enter a Messenger baftily.	Opinion that so stickes on Martins, shall
Meff. Where's Cause Martins?	Ofhis demetits rob Cominins.
Mar. Heere: what's the matter?	Bru. Come: halfe all Cominius Honors are to Martin
Mef. The newes is fir, the Volcies are in Armes.	Though Martins earn'd them not : and all his faults
Mar. I am glad on't, then we shall ha meanes to vent	To Martius shall be Honors, though indeed
Dur mustie superfluity. See our best Elders.	In ought he merit not.
our mutic apennany. See our ben Blacis.	Sicin. Let's hence, and heare
Enter Sicinius Velntus, Annius Brutus Cominius, Titus	How the difpatch is made, and in what fashion
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	More then his fingularity, he goes
Lartius, with other Senatours.	Vpon this prefent Action.
	Bru. Let's along. Exemp
1. Sen. Martuus' tis true, that you have lately told vs,	Dim. Lets along Litem
The Volces are in Armes.	Further Thallan Anti-Sugarish Courses of Cart 1.
Mar. They have a Leader,	Entor Tullus Auffidins with Senators of Coriolns.
Tullus Auffidius that will put you too t:
finne in enuying his Nobility :	1.Sen. So, your opinion is Auffidans,
And were I any thing but what I am,	That they of Rome ate entred in our Counfailes,
would with me onely he.	And know how we proceede,
Com. You have fought together?	Anf. Isitnotyours?
Mar. Were halfe to halfe the world by theares, & he	What ever have bin thought one in this State
vpon my partie, I'de reuolt to make	That could be brought to bodily act, ere Rome
Onely my warres with him. He is a Lion	Had circumuention : 'tis not foure dayes gone
That I am proud to hunt.	Since I heard thence, thefe are the words, I thinke
1. Sen. Then worthy Martins,	I haue the Letter heere : yes, heere it is;
Attend vpon Cominens to these Warres.	They have preft a Power, but it is not knowne
Com. It is your former promile.	Whether for East or Weft : the Dearth is great,
Mar. Sir it is,	The people Mutinous: And it is rumour'd,
And I am conftant : Tiths Lucius, thou	Comminins, Martins your old Enemy
Shalt see me once more strike at Tullus face.	(Who is of Rome worfe hated then of you)
What art thou stiffe? Stand'ft out?	And Titus Lartins, a most valiant Romen,
Tit. No Cains Martins,	These three leade on this Preparation
Ile leane vpon one Crutch, and fight with tother,	Whethes 'tis bent ; most likely, 'tis for you :
	Confider of it.
Ere flay behinde this Bufineffe.	1.Sen. Our Armie's in the Field :
Men. Oh true-bred.
Sen. Your Company to'th Capitoll, where I know	We neuer yet made doubt but Rome was ready To answer vs.
Our greateft Friends attend vs.	Auf. Nor did you thinkeit folly,
Tit. Lead you on : Follow Cominius, we must followe
you, right worthy you Priority.	To keepe your great pretences vayl'd, till when
Com. Noble Martius.	They needs must she themselves, which in the batchin
Sen. Hence to your homes, be gone.	It feem'd appear'd to Rome. By the discouery,
Mar. Nay ict them follow,	Weshalbeshortned in our ayme, which was
The Volces haue much Corne : take these Rats thither,	To take in many Townes, ere (almost)Rome
To gnaw their Garners. Worfhipfull Mutiners,	Should know we were a-foot.
Your valour puts well forth : Pray follow. Exempt.	2. Sen. Noble Anffidins,
Citizens ficale away. Manet Sicin. & Brutus.	Take your Commission, hye you to your Batids,
Sicin. Was cuer man so proud as is this Martius?	Let vs alone to guard Corioles
Brn. He has no equall.	If they let downe before's : for the remoue
Sicin. When we were chosen Tribunes for the people,	Bring vp your Army: but (I thinke) you'l finde
Brn. Mark'd you his lip and eyes.	Th'haue not prepar'd for vs.
Sicin. Nay, but his taunts.	Anf. O doubt not that,
Brn. Being mou'd, he will not spare to gird the Gods.	I speake from Certainties. Nay more,
Sscin, Bemocke the modest Moone.	Some parcels of their Power are forth already,
Bru. The present Warres deuoure him, he is growne	And onely hitherward. I leave your Honors,
Too proud to be fo valiant.	If we, and Cains Martins chance to meete,
Sicin. Such 2 Nature, tickled with good fucceffe, dif-	'Tis sworne betweene vs, we shall euer strike daines the shadow which he treads on at noone, but I do	Till one can do no more.
wonder, his infolence can brooke to be commanded vn-	All. The Gods afsift you.
der Cominius?	Auf. And keepe your Honors lait.
Brw. Fame, at the which he aymes,	1.Sen, Farewell.
In whom already he's well grac'd, cannot	3. Sen, Farewell,
Better be held, nor more attain'd then by	All, Farewell, Exeint onnes
	883 Enter
كمستعود متر سوالار بالكر ما الروان الروان بوالا بالم المان والمساوي والموالية المان والموال ما والمراجع الماني
· · · ·
· · ·

•

-

Enter Volumnus and Virgilia, mother and wife to Adartius : I bey fet them downe on two lowe stooles and fowe.

and the second

Volum. I pray you daughter fing, or expresse your selfe in a more comfortable loft .: If my Sonne were my Hufband, I should freelier resoyce in that absence wherein he wonne Honor, then in the sembracements of his Bed, where he would fnew most love. When yet hee was but tender-bodied, and the onely Sonne of my womb; when youth with comelineffe pluck'd all gaze his way; when for a day of Kings entreaties, a Mother should not felhim an houre from her beholding; I confidering how Honour would become fuch a person, that it was no better then Picture-like to hang by th'wall, if renowne made it not flitte, was pleas'd to let him teeke danger, where he was like to finde fame : To a cruell Warre I fent him, from whence he return'd, his browes bound with Oake. I tell thee Daughter, I sprang not more in ioy at first hearing he was a Mari-child, then now in first seeing he had proned nimielte a man.

Vorg. But had he died in the Bufinefic Madame, how then?

Volum. Then his good report fhould have beene my Sonne, I therein would have found iffue. Heare me profeffe fincerely, had I a Jozen fons each in my loue alike, and none leffe deere then thine, and my good Martins, ] had rather had eleven dye Nob'y for their Countrey, then one voluptuoufly furter out of A Rion.

Enter a Genslewoman.

Gent. Madam, the Lady Valerians come to visit you. Virg. Beleech you give me leaue to retire my leife. Volum. Indeed you fhall not :

Me thinkes, I heare hither your Husbands Drumme: See hin placke Auffinius downe by th'haire : (As children from a Beare) it e Volcer fhunning him : Me thinkes I fee him Hampe thus, and call thus, Come on you Cowards, you were got in feare Though you were borne in Rome ; his bloody brow With his mail'd hand, then wiping, form he goes Like to a Haruelt man, that task'd to mowe Or all, or loose his hyre.

Virg. His bloody Brow ? Oh Jupiter, no blood. Volum. Away you Foole ; it more becomes a man' Then giltlus Trophe. The brefts of Hecuba When the did fuckle Hellor, look'd not lovelier Then Hellers forhead, when it spit forth blood At Grecian fword. Contenning, tell Valeria We sre fit to bid her welcome. Exit Gent.

Vir. Heavens bleffe my Lord from fell Auffidins. Uol, Hee'l beat Auffedins head below his knee, And treade vpon his necke.

Enter Valersa with an Viber, and a Gentlewoman.

Val. My Ladies both good day to you.;

Vol. Sweet Madam.

2

Uir. I am glad to fee your Ladyfhip.

Val. How do you both ? You are manifest house-keepers. What are you fowing heere? A fine spotte in good faith. How does your little Sonne ?

For. I thanke your Lady-fhip : Well good Madam. Vol. He had rather fee the fwords, and heare a Drum, then looke vpon his Schoolmaiter.

Val. A my word the Fathers Sonne : He fweare 'tis a very pretty boy. A my troth, I look d vpon him s Weniday halfe an houre together : ha's fuch a confirm'd countenance. I faw him run after a gilded Butterfly, & when he caught it, he let it go againe, and after it againe, and ouer and ouer he comes, and vp againes catche at again : or whether his fall enrag'd him, or how 'twas, hee did fo fet his teeth, and teare it. Oh, Iwarrant how he mammockt it.

Vol. One on's Fathers moods.

- Val. Indeed la, tis a Noble childe.

Vol. Come, lay alide your flitchery, Imust have you play the idle Hufwife with me this afternoone.

- Virg. No (good Madam) I will not out of doores.
  - Val. Not our of doores?
  - Volum. She fhall, the fhall.

Virg. Indeed no, by your patience; lie not over the thiefhold, till my Lord returne from the Warres.

Val. Fye, you confine your felte most vareafonably : Come, you must go with the good Lady that lies in.

Virg. 1 will with her speedy firength, and visite her with my prayers : but I cannot go thither. Volum. Why I pray you.

Ving. 'T is not to faue labour, nor that I want loue. Val. You would be another Penelope; yet they fay, all the yearne the ipun in Vieffer absence, did bur fill Asbica fuil of Mothes Come, I would your Cambrick were fen. oble as your finger, that you might leave pricking it for pitie. Come you shall go with vo.

Fr. No good Madain, pardon me, indeed I will por foorth.

Ual. In truth la go with me, and lie tell you excellent newes of your Husband.

Virg. Oh good Madam, there can be none yes. Val. Verily I do not feit with your there came newes from him half inglit.

Um. Indeed Madam.

Val In concitic's true; I heard a Senatour Speakeit, Thus it is : the Volcies have an Army forth, againft who Commins the Generall is gone, with one part of our Romane power. Your Lord, and Tiens Lareins, are fet down before their Citic Carioles, they nothing doubt preuailing, and to make it breefe Warres. This is true on mine Honor, and fo I pray go with vs.

Virg. Giue me excule good Madame, I will obey you in euery thing heereafter.

Vol. Let her alone Ladie, as the is now :

She will but disease our better mirth.

Valeria. In troth I thinke fhe would :

Fare you well then. Come good fweet Ladie. Prythee Virgilia turne thy folemnelle out a doore, And go along with vs. Virgil. No

At a word Madain; Indeed I muft not, I with you netch mirth.

Val. Weil, then farewell.

- Exercise Ladies

M4

۰.

Enter Martine, Titme Lartins, with Dramme and Colours, with Captaines and Souldiers, as before the City Corialau : to them a Mefenger.

Marines. Yonder comes Newes s Wager they have met. A Lar My horie to yours, no. Mar. Tisdone. Lart. Agreed.

The Tragedie	of Coriolanus. 5
Mar. Say, ha's our Generall met the Enemy?	With them he enters : who vpon the fodaine
Meff. They ly e in view, but haue not fpoke as yet.	Clapt to their Gates, he is himielfe alone,
Lart. So, the good Horfe is mine.	To answer all the City.
2, arr. 11 huy hup of you	Lar. Oh Noble Fellow !
Mart. He buy him of you.
Lart No, Ile not fel, not giue him: Lend you him I will	Who fenfibly out-dares his fenceiesse Sword, or halfe a hundred yeares: Summon the Towne.	And when it bowes, fand'ft vp : Thou art left Marines,
Mar. How fatte off lie these Armies?	A Carbuucle intire : as big as thou art
Meff. Wnhin this mile and halfe.	Weare not fo rich a lewell. Thou was't a Souldier
Mar. Then shall we heare their Larum, & they Ours.	Even to Calues with, not fierce and terrible
	Onely in Brokes, but with thy grim lookes, and Now Mars, I prythee make vs quicke in worke, hat we with smoaking swords may march from hence	The Thunder-like percuffion of thy founds
so helpe our fielded Friends. Come, blow thy blaft.	Thou mad'it thine enemies thake as if the World
	Were Feauorous, and did tremble.
They Sound a Parley Enter two Sematars with others on the Walles of Corialius.	Enter Martins bleeding, affaulted by the Enemy.
ullus Auffictions, 15 he within your Walles?	v. Sol. Looke Sir.
	Lar. O'tis Marsins.
I.Senat. No, nor a man that feares you leffe then he,
[hat's lesier then a little : Drum a furre off.	Let's tetch him off, or make remaine alike.
Icarke, our Drummes	They fight, and all enter the Cis
Are bringing forth our youth : Wee'l breake our Walles	Enter certaine Romanes with spoiles.
Rather then they fha'l pound vs vp our Gates,	I. Rom. This will I carry to Rome.
Which yet seeme four, we have but pin'd with Rushes,	2. Rom. And I this.
They'le open of themielues. Harke you, farre off	3 Rom. A Murram on't, I tooke this for Silver. exemn
Alarum farre off.	Alarsim continués fisil a-farre off.
There is Auffidious. Lift what worke he makes	Enter Martius, and Tstus with a Trumpet.
Among'st your cloven Army.	Mar. See heere these mouers, that do prize their hour
Mars. Oh they are at it.	At a crack'd Drachme : Cushions, Leaden Spoones, Lart. Their noise be our instruction. Ladders hos.	Irons of a Doit, Dublets that Hangmen would Runn with the fashes mars them The Ch C C
From the Annu of the Theles	Bury with those that wore them. These base flaues, .
Enter the Army of the Volces.	Ere yet the fight be done, packe vp, downe with them.
Mar. They feare vs not, but issue for h their Citie.	And harke, what noyfe the Generall makes; To him
Now put your Shields before your hearts, and fight	There is the men of my soules hate, Auffidions,
With hearts more proofe then Shields.	Piercing our Romanes : Then Valiant Turns take
Aduance brave Titus,	Conuchient Numbers to make good the City,
They do difdaine vs much beyond our Thoughts,	Whill I much the factor to make good the City,
	Whil'ff I with those that have the spirit, wil haste which makes me fweat with wrath. Come on my fellows	TO helpe community,
He that retires, Ile take him for a Volce,	Lar. Worthy Sir, thou bleed'ff,
And he fhall feele mine edge,	Thy exercise hath bin too violent,
Alarum the Romans are beat back to their Trenches	For a fecond course of Fight,
Enter Martins (urfing.	Mar. Su, praise me not :
Mar. All the contagion of the South, light on you,	Musureke hath use non-mount in the
	My worke hath yet not warm'd me. Fare you well :
You Shames of Rome : you Heard of Byles and Plagues	The blood I drop, is rather Physicall
Plaister you o're, that you may be abhorr'd	Then dangerous to me : To Auffidious thus, I will apper
Farther then seene, and one infect another	Lar. Now the faire Goddesse Fortune, (and figh
Against the Windea mile : you soules of Geese,	Fall deepe in loue with thee, and her great charmes
That beare the fhapes of men, how have you run	Milguide thy Opposers swords, Bold Gentleman :
From Slaues, that Apes would beate ; Pluto and Hell,	Profperity be thy Page.
All hurt behinde, backes red, and faces pale
	Mar. Thy Friend no leffe,
With flight and agued feare, mend and charge home,	Then those she placeth highest : So farewell.
Or by the fires of heauen, Ile leaue the Foe,	Lar. Thou worthielt Marine,
And make my Warres on you : Looke too't: Come on,	Go found thy Trumper in the Market place,
If you'l ftand faft, wee'l beate them to their Willes,	Call thither all the Officers a'th' Towne,
As shey vs to our Trenches followes.
Another Alarum, and Martins followes shem to	where they inall know our minde. Away. Exem Enter Cominius as it were in retire, with foldiers.
gates, and is fout in.	Cem. Breath you my friends, wel fought, we are com
So, now the gates are open now proue good Seconds,	Like Komans, neither foolith in our flands, (of
Tis for the followers Fortune, widens them,	Nor Cowardly in retyre : Beleeue me Sirs,
Not for the flyers : Marke me, and do the like.	We shall be charg'd againe. Whiles we have strocke
Enter the Gati.	By Interims and conveying gults, we have heard
1.Sol. Foole-hardineffe, not I.	The Charges of our Entends The D
	The Charges of our Friends. The Roman Gods,
2. Sol. Nor I.	Leade their successes we wish our owne,
1.Sol. See they have thut him in. Alarma continues	That both our powers, with fmiling Fronts encountring
All. To th'pot I warrant him. Enter Tuns Lartins	May give you thankfull Sacrifice. Thy Newes?
Tis. What is become of Martins ?	Enter a Melfenger.
All. Staine (Sir) doubtlesse.	Mef. The Cittizens of Correles have yfiued,
1. Sol. Following the Flyers at the very heeles,	And given to Canting and an Menatur Develop
	And given to Larsins and to Marsins Battails i aag Ifay

6 The Tragedi	e of Coriolanus.
I faw our party to their Trenches driuen,	You were conducted to a gentle Bath,
And then I came away,	And Balmes applyed to you, yet dare I neuer
Com. Though thou speakeft truth,	Deny your asking, take your choice of these
Me thinkes thou speak'lt not well. How long is't fince?	That best can ayde your action.
Mef. Aboue an houre; my Lord.	Atar. Those are they That most are willing; if any such be heere,
Com. Tis not a mile: briefely we heard their drummes.	(As it were frome to doubt) that love this painting
How could'A thou in a mile confound an houre,	Wherein you fee me imear'd, if any feare
And bring thy Newes fo late? Mef. Spics of the Volces	Leffen his person, then an ill report :
Held me in chace, that I was forced to wheele	If any thinke, braue death out-weighes bed life,
Three or foure miles about, elle had I fir	And that his Countries deerer then himfelfe,
Halfe an houre fince brought my report.	Let him alone : Or fo many fo minded,
	Wave thus to expresse his disposition,
Enter Martinu.	And follow Martine.
Com. Whofe yonder,	T bey all shows and wane their swords, take bim up in their
That does appeare as he were Flead ?O Gods,	As mes, and cafe up their Caps.
He has the ftampe of Martine, and I have	Oh me alone, make you a lword of me : If thele fhewes be not outward, which of you
Before time scene him thus.	But is foure Volces? None of you, but is
Mar. Come I too late? Com. The Shepherd knowes not Thunder fro a Taber,	Able to beare against the great Anffidions
More then I know the found of Martine Tongue	A Shield, as hard as his. A certaine number
From euery meaner man.	(Though thankes to all) must I scleet from all :
Martine. Come I too late ?	The reft shall beare the bufineffe in some other fight
Com. I, if you come not in the blood of others,	(As caule will be obey'd:) please you to March,
But mantled in your owne.	And foure shall quickly draw out my Command,
Mart. Ohliet me clip ye	Which men are beft inclin'd.
In Armes as found, as when I woo'd in heart;	Com. March on my Fellowes:
As merry, as when our Nupriall day was done,	Make good this offentation, and you fhall
And Tapers burnt to Bedward.	Diuide in all, with vs. Exeant
Com.Flower of Warriors, how is't with Tities Lartis?	Titus Lartins, baning fet a guard upon Carioles, going with
Mar. As with a man bufied about Decrees :	Trum and Trumpet toward Cominius, and Cains Mar-
Condemning tome to death, and fome to exile,	tiss, Enters with a Lientenant, other Souldioars, and a
Ranfomingun, or pittying, threatning th'other;	Scout.
Holding Corfoles in the name of Rome, Euen like a fawning Grey-hound in the Leasth,
To let him flip at will.	Lar. So, let the Ports be guarded ; keepe your Duties
Com. Where is that Slaue	As I houe fer them downe. If I do fend, dispatch
Which fold me they had beate you to your Trenches ?	Those Centuries to our ayd, the rest will ferue
Where is he? Call him hither.	For a flort holding, if we loofe the Field,
Mar. Let him alone.	We cannot keepe the Towne.
He did informe the truth : but for our Gentlemen,	Lieu. Feare not our care Sir.
The common file. (a plague-1 ribunes for them)	Lart. Hence; and thut your gates vpon's : Our Guider come, to th'Roman Campe conduct vs. Exit
The Moufe ne're ihunn'd the Cat, as they did budge	Alarum, as in Battaile.
From Rafcals world then they.
Com. But how preuail'd you? Mar. Will the time ferue to tell, I do not thinke:	Enter Martins and Auffidins at feneral doores.
Where is the enemy' Are you Lords a th Field?	Mar. Ile fight with none but thee, for I do hate thee
If nor why ceale you till you are lor	Worfe then a Promife-breaker.
Com. Martins, we have at difaduantage fought,	Auffid. We hate alike:
And did retyre to Will our purpole.	Not Affricke ownes a Serpent I abhorre
Mar. How lies their Battell? Know you on white	More then thy Fame and Enuy: Fix thy foot.
They have plac'd their men of truft?	Mar. Let the first Budger dye the others Slatte,
Cora As   quelle Martins,	And the Gods doome him after.
Their Bands ith Vaward are the Antients	Auf. If ] flye Martins, hollow me like a Hare. Mar. Within these three houres Tulkas
Of their bost crust : O re them Aufficions,	Alone I fought in your Corroles walles,
Their very heart of Hope.	And made what worke I pleas'd: Tis not my blood,
Mar. 1 do beleech you,	Wherein thou feeft me maskt, for thy Reuenge
By all the Lattatics wherein we have fought,	Wrench vp thy power to this higheft.
By th'Blood we have fhed together, By th'Vowes we have made	Auf. Wer't thou the Heltor,
To endure Priends, that you directly fet me	That was the whip of your bragg'd Progeny,
Agaiast Affidione, and his Antisets,	Thou (hould'ft not fcape me heere.
And that you not delay the present ( Dut	Here they fight and certaine Volces come in the ayde
Filling the aire with Swords aduanc d'and Darts,	of Auffs. Martins fights til they be armen in preatoies.
We proue this very hourc.	Officious and not valiant, you have sham a me
Com. Though I could with,	In your condemned Seconds. Flours?
1	£ [0351] · ·

.

.

•

.

•

١

· 4

Hourish. Alarum. A Retreat is sounded. Enter at one Doore Cominius, with the Romanes : Ac another Doore Martius, with his Arme in a Scarfe.

Com. If I thould tell thee o're this thy dayes Worke, Thou't not beleeue thy deeds: but lle report it, Where Senators thall mingle teares with finites, Where great Particians fhall attend, and thrug, I'th'end admire: where Ladies thall be frighted, And gladly quak'd, heare more: where the dull Tribunes, That with the fuffic Plebeans, hate thine Honors, Shall fay againff their hearts, We thanke the Gods Our Rome hath fuch a Souldier. Yet cam'ft thou to a Morfell of this Feaft, Hauing fully din'd before.

Enter Titus with his Power, from the Purfuit.

Titm Lartius. Oh Generall : Here is the Steed, wee the Caparifon : Hadft thou beheld—

Martim. Pray now, no more : My Mocher, who ha's a Charter to extoll her Bloud, When the do's prayfe me, grieues me : I haue done as you haue done, that's what I can, Induc'd as you haue beene, that's for my Couptrey : He that ha's but effected his good will, Hath ouerta'ne mine Act.

Com. You thall not be the Graue of your deferuing, Rome muft know the value of her owne : 'Twere a Concealement worfe then a Theft, No leffe then a Traducement, To hide your doings, and to filence that, Which to the fpre, and top of prayfes vouch'd, Would feeme but modeft : therefore I befeech you, In figne of what you are, not to reward What you have done, before our Armie heare me.

Martine. I have fome Wounds vpon me, and they finart To heare themfelues remembred.

Com. Should they not:

Well might they fefter 'gainft Ingratitude, And tent themfelues with death : of all the Horfe's, Whereof we haue ta'ne good, and good ftore of all, The Treasure in this field atchieued, and Citie, We render you the Tenth, to be ta'ne forth, Before the common diffribution, At your onely choyfe.

Martine. I thanke you Generall: But cannot make my heart confent to take A Bribe, to pay my Sword: I doe refufe it, And fland upon my common part with those, That have beheld the doing.

A long flowrifb. They all cry, Martisse, Martins, caft up their Caps and Launces : Cominius and Lartisse fland bare.

Mar. May these same Instruments, which you prophane, Neuer sound more: when Drums and Trumpets shall I'th'field proue flatterers, let Courts and Cities be Made all of falle-fac'd foothing: When Steele growes soft, as the Parasites Silke, Let him be made an Ouerture for th' Warres: No more I fay, for that I have not wash'd

My Nofe that bled, or foyl'd fome debile Wretch, Which without note, here's many elfe haue done. You fhoot me forth in acclamations hyperbolicall, As if I lou'd my little should be dieted In prayfes, fawe it with Lyes. Com. Too modeft are you : More cruell to your good report, then gratefull . To vs, that give you truly : by your patience, 'If'gainst your felfe you be incens'd, wee'le put you (Like one that meanes his proper harme) in Manaeles, Then reason fafely with you : Therefore be it knowne, As to vs, to all the World, That Caus Martin Weares this Warres Garland : in token of the which, My Noble Steed, knowne to the Campe, I giue him, With all his trim belonging ; and from this time, For what he did before Corioles, call hun, With all th'applause and Clamor, of the Hoast, Marcus Caus ( oriolanus, Beare th'addition Nobly cuer? Elourish. Trumpers found, and Drums. Omnes, Marcie Casus Coriblanus. Martines. I will goe wash: And when my Face is faire, you shall perceiue Whether I blufh or no : howbeit, I thanke you, I meane to firide your Steed, and at all times To vnder-creft your good Addition, To th'faireneffe of my power. Com. So, to our Tent : Where ere we doe repofe vs, we will write To Rome of our fuccesse : you Titus Larting Must to Corioles backe, send vs to Rome The beft, with whom we may arriculate, For their owne good, and ours. Lartuss. 1 Ihall, my Lord. Martine. The Gods begin to mocke me : I that now refus'd most Princely gifts, Am bound to begge of my Lord Generall. Com. Tak't,'tis yours : what is't? Martins. I fometime lay here in Corioles, At a poore mans houfe: he vs'd me kindly, He cry'd to me : 1 faw him Prisoner : But then Auffiding was within my view, And Wrath o're-whelm'd my pittie : I request you To gue my poore Holt freedome. Com. Oh well begg'd: Were he the Butcher of my Sonne, he fhould Be free, as is the Winde : deliuer him, Titm. Lartine. Martine, his Name. Martine. By Inpiter forgot: I am wearie, yea, my memorie is tyr'd : Haue we no Wine here ? Com Goe we to our Tent: The bloud vpon your Vifage dryes, tis time It should be lookt too : come. Exennt.

A flowrifh. Cornets. Enter Tullus Anffideus blondic, with two or three Souldiors.

Auffi. The Towne is ta'ne. Sould. 'Twill be deliuet'd backe on good Condition. Auffid. Condition? I would I were a Roman, for I cannot, Being a Volce, be that I am. Condition? What good Condition can a Treatie finde I'th'part that is at mercy? fue times, Martine, I haue fought with thee; fo often haft thou beat me: And would'ft doe fo, I thinke, fhould we encounter

As often as we cate, By th'Elements, is and If ere againe I meet him beard to beard, until He's mine, or I am his Mine Emulation Hath not that Honor in't it had : For where I thought to crush him in an equal Force, True Sword to Sword : Ile potche at him lome way, Or Wrath, or Craft may get him.

Sol. He's the divell. Auf.Bolder, though not fo subtle: my valors poison'd, With onely fuff ring faine by him ; for him Shall flye out of it selfe, nor sleepe, nor lanctuary, Being naked, ficke; nor Phane, nor Capitoll, The Prayers of Pricits, nor times of Sacrifice: Embarquements all of Fury, shall lift vp Their rotten Priviledge, and Cuftome gainst My hate to Martim. Where I finde him, were it At home, upon my Brothers Guard, even there Against the hospitable Canon, would I Wass my fierce hand in a heart. Go you to th Citic, Learne how "tis held, and what they are that must Be Hoftages for Rome.

Soul. Will not you go? Auf. I am attended at the Cyptus groue. I pray you "Tis Solith the City Mils) bring me word thither How the world goes : that to the pace of it I may fpurre on my iourney. Soul. I fhall fir.

}:1 *

8

E.

Actus Secundus.

Enter Menenins with the two Tribunes of the people, Sicinius & Brueus.

Men. The Agurer tels me, wee shall have Newes to night.'

Brw. Good or bad?

Men. Not according to the prayer of the people, for they loue not Martins.

Sicin. Nature teaches Beafts to know their Friends.

Men. Pray you, who does the Wolfe ioue ?

Siein. The Lambe.

Men. I, to deuout him, as the hungry Plebeians would the Noble Marsins.

Bru. He's a Lambe indeed, that baes like a Beare.

Men. Hee's a Beare indeede, shat lives like a Lambe. You two are old men, tell me one thing that I shall aske you.

Both. Well fir.

Men. In what enormity is Martins poore in, that you two haue not in abundance?

Bru. He's poore in no one fault, but ftor'd withall. Sicin. Especially in Pride.

Bru. And topping all others in boafting.

Men. This is firange now : Do you two know, how you are centured heere in the City, I mean of vs a'th'right hand File, do you? -

Both. Why? ho ware we cenfur'd?

Men. Becaufe you talke of Pride now, will you not be angry.

Both. Well, well fir, well.

Men. Why'tis no great matter : for a very little theefe of Occasion, will rob you of a great deale of Patience : Giue your dispositions the reines, and bee angry at your pleasures. (at the least) if you take it as a pleasure to you, in being fo : you blame Marsins for being proud. Brut. We do it not alone, fir.

Men. I know you can doe very little alone, for your helpes are many, or elle your actions would growe wondrous fingle : your abilities are to Infant-like, for dooing much alone. You talke of Pride: Oh, that you could turn your eyes toward the Napes of your neckes, and make but an Interiour furuey of your good felues. Oh that you could.

Both. What then fir ? Men. Why then you should discouter a brace of vnmeriting, proud, violent, teftie Magistrates (alias Fooles) as any in Rome, Sicin. Menenins, you are knowne well enough too.

Men. I am knowne to be a humorous Patritian, and one that loues a cup of hot Wine, with not a drop of alaying Tiber in't : Said, to be fomething imperfect in fauouring the first complaint, hasty and Tinder-like vppon, to triuiall motion : One, that converfes more with the Buttocke of the night, then with the forhead of the morning. What I think, I vtter, and fpend my malice in my breath. Meeting two fuch Weales men as you are (I cannot call you Lienrguffes,) if the drinke you give me, touch my Palat aduerfly, I make a crooked face at it, I can fay, your Worshippes haue dehuer'd the matter well, when I finde the Affe in compound, with the Maior part of your syllables. And though I must be content to beare with those, that fay you are reuerend graue men, yet they lye deadly, that tell you have good faces, if you fee this in the Map of my Microcolme, followes it that I am knowne well enough too ? What harme can your beclome Conspectuities gleane out of this Charracter, if I be knowne well cnough too.

Brn. Come fit come, we know you well enough.

Menen. You know neither mee, your felucs, nor any thing : you are ambitious, for poore knaues cappes and legges : you weare out a good wholefome Forenoone, in hearing a caufe betweene an Orendge wife, and a Forfetfeller, and then reiourne the Controuetfie of three-pence to a fecond day of Audience. When you are hearing a matter betweene party and party, if you chaunce to bee pinch'd with the Collicke, you make faces like Mummers, set vp the bloadie Flagge against all Patience, and in roaring for a Chamber-pot, dismisse the Controuersie bleeding, the more intangled by your hearing : All the peace you make in their Caule, is calling both the parties Knaues. You are a payre of firange ones.

Brn. Come, come, you are well vnderftood to bee a perfecter gyber for the Table, then a necessary Bencher in the Capitoll.

Men. Our very Prieits must become Mockers, if they shall encounter such fidiculous Subjects as you are, when you speake best vnto the purpose. It is not woorth the wagging of your Beards, and your Beards deferue not fo honourable a graue, as to fluffe a Botchers Culhion, or to be intomb'd in an Affes Packe-faddle; yet you muft bee faying, Martins is proud : who in a cheape effimation, is worth all your predeceffors, fince Dencalion, though peraduenture some of the best of 'em were hereditarie hangmen. Godden to your Worships, more of your conuerfation would infect my Braine, being the Heardsmen of the Beaffly Plebeans. I will be bold to take my leaue of you.

Brn. and Scic.

Enser

Afide.

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 9 Death, that darke Spirit, in's nerus Arme doth lye, Which being aduanc'd, declines, and then men dye. Euter Volumina, Virgslia, and Valeria. How now (my as faire as Noble) Ladyes, and the Moone A Sennet. Trumpets found. Enter Comining the Generall, and Titus Lating : bewere thee Earthly, no Nobler ; whither doe you follow tweene them Corsolanne, crown'd with an Oaken your Eyes fo fast? Garland, with Captaines and Soul-Volum. Honorable Menenius, my Boy Martim approdiers, and a Heranid. ches : for the love of Inno let's goe. Herauld. Know Rome, that all alone Martin did fight Menen. Ha? Martim comming home? Within Corioles Gates ; where he hath wonne, Volum. I, worthy Menenina, and with most prosperous With Fame, a Name to Martine Caine : approbation. Thefe in honor followes Martius Cause Coriolanue. Menen. Take my Cappe Ispiter, and I thanke thee : Welcome to Rome, renowned Coriolanies. hoo, Martine comming home? Sound. FLONTI No." 2. Ladies. Nay,'tis true. All. Welcome to Rome, renowned Coriolanna. Volum. Looke, here's a Letter from him, the State hath another, his Wife another, and (I thinke) there's one at Consol. No more of this, it does offend my heart: pray now no more. home for you. Menen. I will make my very house reele to night: Com. Looke, Sir, your Mother. Coriol. Oh ! you have, I know, petition'd all the Gods A Letter for me? for my prosperitue. Kneeles. Virgil Yes certaine, there's a Letter for you, I faw't. Volum. Nay, my good Souldier, vp : Menen. A Letter for mer it giues me an Estate of feuen yeeres health; in which time, I will make a Lippe at My gentle Martins, worthy Cains, And by deed-atchieung Honor newly nam'd, the Phylician: The molt loueraigne Prefcription in Galen, is but Emperick qutique; and to this Preferuatiue, of no What is it (Corrolanus ) must I call thee? Bur oh, thy Wife. better report then a Horse-diench. Is he not wounded? Corio. My gracious filence, hayle : he was wont to come home wounded? Would'st thou have laugh'd, had I come Coffin'd home, Virgil. Oh no, no, no, That weep'ft to fee me triumph? Ah my deare, Volum. Oh, he is wounded, I thanke the Gods for't. Menen. So doe I too, if it be not too much : brings a Such eyes the Widowes in Carioles were, And Mothers that lacke Sonnes. Victorie in his Pockes? the wounds become him. Volum. On's Browes : Menemus, hee comes the third Mene. Now the Gods Crowne thee. Com. And live you yet? Oh my fweet Lady, pardon. time home with the Oaken Garland. Volum. I know not where to turne. Menen. Ha's he disciplia'd Auffidine soundly? Oh welcome home:and welcome Generall, Volum. Titm Lartine writes, they fought together, but Aud y'are welcome all. Anffidum got off. Menen. And 'twas time for him too, Ile warrant him that : and he had flay'd by him. I would not have been 'o Mene. A hundred thousand Welcomes : I could weepe, and I could laugh, I am light, and heauie; welcome: fiddious'd, for all the Chefts in Carioles, and the Gold A Curfe begin at very root on's heart, that's in them. Is the Senate possest of this? That is not glad to fee thee. Volum. Good Ladies let's goe. Yes, yes, yes : The Yon are three, that Rome should dote on : Senate ha's Letters from the Generall, wherein hee gives my Sonne the whole Name of the Warre : he hath in this Yet by the faith of men, we haue Some old Crab-trees here at home, action out-done his former deeds doubly. That will not be grafted to your Rallifa. Valer. In troth, there's wondrous things spoke of him. Yet welcome Warriors Menen. Wondrous : I, I warrant you, and not with-Wee call a Nettle, but a Nettle; out his true purchasing. Virgil. The Gods graunt them true. And the faults of fooles, but folly. Com. Euer right. Volum. True? pow waw. Mone. True ? Ile be fworne they are true : where is Cor. Menenine, cucr, cuer. hee wounded, God faue your good Worships? Martine Herauld. Giue way there, and goe on. Cor. Your Hand, and yours? is comming home : hee ha's more caufe to be prowd : Ere in our owne house I doe shade my Head, where is he wounded? The good Patricians must be visited, Volum. Ith' Shoulder, and ith' left Arme : there will be From whom I have received not onely greetings, large Cicatrices to fhew the People, when hee shall stand But with them, change of Honors. for his place : he received in the repulse of Tarquin seven hurts ith Body. Volum. I haue lived, Mene. One ith' Neck, and two ith' Thigh, there's nine To fee inherited my very Wifhes, And the Buildings of my Fancie : that I know. Volum. Hee had, before this laft Expedition, twentie Onely there's one thing wanting, fiue Wounds vpon him. Which (I doubt not) but our Rome Mene. Now it's twentie feuen ; euery gash was an Will caft vpon thee. Enemies Graue. Hearke, the Trumpers. Cor. Know, good Mother, I had rather be their feruant in my way, A flowt, and flowrifb. Volum. These are the Vihers of Martine : Then fway with them in theirs. Before him, hee carryes Noyfe; Com. On, to the Capitall. Flowigh. Commets. And behinde him, hee leaves Teares : Exenne in Seate, as before. Ente

٠,£

The Tragedie of Coriolanus.

Enter Brntne and Scicinine.

Bru. All tongues speake of him, and the bleared fights Are spectacled to see him. Your prating Nurse Into a rapture lets her Baby crie, While the chats him : the Kitchin Malkin pinnes Her richeft Lockram'bout her reechie necke, Clambring the Walls to eye him: Stalls, Bulkes, Windowes, are fmother'd vp, Leades fill'd, and Ridges hors'd With variable Complexions; all agreeing In earnestnelle to see him: seld-showne Flamins Doe prefie among the popular Throngs, and puffe To winne a vulgar station : our veyl'd Dames Commit the Warre of White and Damaske In their nicely gawded Checkes, roth' wanton fpoyle Of Phabus burning Kiffes : fuch & poother, As if that what sour God, who leades him, Were flyly crept into his humane powers, And gaue him gracefull posture.

Sescin. On the fuddaine, I warrant him Confull. Brutiss, Then our Office may, during his power, goe fleepe.

Sciein. He cannot temp'rately transport his Honors, From where he should begin, and end, but will Lose those he hath wonne.

Brutus. In that there's comfort. Sciei. Doubt not, The Commoners, for whom we fland, but they Vpon their ancient mallice, will forget With the least cause, these his new Honors, Which that he will give them, make I as little question, As he is prowd to doo't.

Bruine. I heard him fweare, Were he to fland for Confull, neuer would he Appeare i'th Market place, nor on him put The Naples Vefture of Humilitie, Nor fhewing (as the manner is) his Wounds Toth People, begge their flinking Breaths. Scient. 'Tis right.

Brning. It was his word : Oh he would miffe it, rather then carry it,

But by the fuite of the Gentry to him,

And the defire of the Nobles.

Scient. I wish no better, then haue him hold that purpose, and to put it in execution.

Brutus. 'Tis most like he will.

Sciein. It shall be to him then, as our good wills ; a fure destruction.

Bratus. So it must fall out To him, or our Authorities, for an end. We must suggest the People, in what hatred He still hath held them: that to's power be would Haue made them Mules, silenc'd their Pleaders, And dispropertied their Freedomes; holding them, In humane Action, and Capacitie, Of no more Soule, nor simessile for the World, Then Cammels in their Warre, who haue their Prouand Oncly for bearing Burthens, and fore blowes For finking voder them.

Sciem. This (as you fay) fuggefted, At fome time, when his foaring fofolence Shull teach the People, which time fhall not want, If he be put you i, and that's as caffe, As to fet Dogges on Sheepe, will be his fire To kindle their dry Stubble : and their Blaze Shall darken him for euer.

Enter a Meffenger.

Brutw: What's the matter? Meff. You are fent for to the Capitoll: 'Tis thought, that Martine fhall be Confull: I have feene the dumbe men throng to fee him, And the blind to heare him fpeak: Matrons flong Gloues, Ladies and Maids their Scarffes, and Handkerchers, Vpon him as he pafs'd: the Nobles bended As to Iones Statue, and the Commons made A Shower, and Thunder, with their Caps, and Showts: I neuer faw the like. Brutus. Let's to the Capitoll, And carry with vs Eares and Eyes for th' time, But Hearts for the event.

Sciem. Haue with you.

Enter two Officers, to lay Culbions, at st were, in the Capitoll.

Exennt.

1. Off. Come, come, they are almost here : how many fland for Conful flups ?

2. Off. Three, they fay : but 'tis thought of every one, Coriolania will carry it.

1. Off. That's a braue fellow > but hee's vengeance prowd, and loues not the common people.

2. Off. 'Faith, there hath beene many great men that haue flatter'd the people, who ne're loued them; and there be many that they haue loued, they know not wherefore: fo that if they loue they know not why, they hate vpon no better a ground. Therefore, for Coriolansis neyther to care whether they loue, or hate him, manifefts the true knowledge he ha's in their difpolition, and out of his Noble careleineffe lets them plainely fee't.

r. Off. If he did not care whether he had their loue, or no, hee waued indifferently, 'twixt doing them neyther good, nor harme : but hee feekes their hate with greater deuotion, then they can render it him; and leaues nothing vndone, that may fully difcouer him their opposite. Now to feeme to affect the mallice and difpleasure of the People, is as bad, as that which he diflikes, to flatter them for their loue.

2. Off. Hee hath deferued worthily of his Countrey, and his affent is not by fuch easie degrees as those, who having beene supple and courteous to the People, Bonnetted, without any further deed, to have them at all into their estimation, and report: but hee hath so planted his Honors in their Eyes, and his actions in their Hearts, that for their Tongues to be filent, and not confesse so much, were a kinde of ingratefull Iniuries to report otherwise, were a Mallice, that giving it felfe the Lye, would plucke reproofe and rebuke from every Eare that heard it.

1. Off. No more of him, hee's a worthy man : make way, they are comming.

A Sennet. Enter the Patricians, and the Tribunes of the People, Littors before them: Coriolanus, Menemins, Communist the Conful: Sciennius and Brutus take their places by themfelues: Coriolanus frands. Menen. Having determin'd of the Volces,

To

And to fend for Titus Lartius : it remaines, As the maine Point of this our after-meeting,

II. i. 224—II. ii. 44 626

The Tragedie	of Coriolanus. II
To gratifie his Noble feruice, that hath	Man-entred thus, he wanted like a Sea,
Thus flood for his Countrey. Therefore please you,	And in the brunt of seventeene Battailes fince,
Moit reuerend and graue Elders, to defire	He lurcht all Swords of the Garland: for this laft,
The prefent Confull, and last Generall,	Before, and in Corioles, let me fay
In our well-found Succeffes, to report	I cannot speake him home : he ftopt the flyere,
A little of that worthy Worke, perform'd	And by his rare example made the Coward
By Martim Cause Corsolance : whom	Turne terror into sport : as Weeds before
We met here, both to thanke, and to remember,	A Veffell vnder fayle, to men obey'd,
With Honors like himfelfe.	And fell below his Stem : his Sword, Deaths ftampe,
1. Sen. Speake, good Cominina :	Where it did marke.it tooke from face to foot :
Leave nothing out for length, and make vs thinke	He was a thing of Blood whole cuery motion
Rather our flates defective for requitall,	Was tim'd with dying Cryes: alone he entred
Then we to firetch it out. Mafters a'th' People, We doe requeft your kindeft cares: and after	The mortall Gate of th Civie, which he painted . With fluinleffe deit.nie : aydeleffe came off,
Your louing motion toward the common Body,	And with a fudden re-inforcement frucke
To yeeld what paffes here.	Carioles like a Planet: now all's lus,
Scient. We are convented upon a pleafing Treatic, and	When by and by the dinne of Warre gan pierce have hearts inclinable to ho is and advance the I heare	His readie fence : then fraight his doubled fortie
of our Affembly.	Requickned what in flefh was fatigate, Brutue. Which is a sub er soe fhall be bleft to doe, if	And to the Battaile came he, where he did he remember a kind of value of the People, then he hath	Runne recking o're the lives of men, as it 'twere
hereto puz'd t' e n at.	A perpetuall spoyle : and till we call'd
Mer.cn. That's off, that's off. I would you rather had	Both Field and Citie ours, he neuer flood been filent : Please you to heare Cominius speake?	To ease his Breft with panting.
Brutus. Most willingly : but yet my Caution was	Menen. Worthy man.
more pertinent then the rebuke you giue it.	Senat. He cannot but with measure fit the Honors
Menen. He loues your People, but tye him not to be their Bed-fellow : Worthie Communs speake.	which we deuife him.
Coriolanus rifes, and offers to noe away.	Com. Our fpoyles he kickt at, And look'd vpon things precious as they were
Nay, keepe your place.	The common Muck of the World : he couets leffe
Senat. Sit Coricianue : Sever fhame to licare	Then Milerie it felfe would giue, rewards his deeds
What you have Nobly done.	With doing them, and is content
Coriol. Your Honors persion :	To spend the time, to end it.
I had rather houe my Wounds to heale againe,	Menen. Hee s right Nuble, let him be call'd for.
Then here f they I got them	Senat. Call Corrolannu.
Drands, Sir, Jorg e niv wor 'a dis-bench'd you not ? (mol. No Support out	Off. He doch appeare.
Const. No Su : yet or, When blowes have made me ftay, I fled from words.	F . C I
You footh'd not, cherefore hurt not: but your People,	Enter Corsolawiss.
Lloue them as they weigh	Monen. The Senate, Coriolanis, are well pleas'd to make
Menen. Pray now fit downe.	thee Confull.
Corro. I lead rather have one feratch my Head 1 th' Sun,	Com. 1 doe owe them full my Life, and Scrutces.
When the Alarum scie firuckesthen idly fit	Monen. It then remaines, that you doe speake to the
To heare my Nothings monther d. Exit Corislania	People
Menen. Mailers of the People,	Corio. I doe beseech you,
Your multiplying Spa was, how can be flatter?	Let me o're-leape that custome : for I cannot
That's thousand to one good one, when you now see He had rather venture . It has Limbes for Honor,	Put on the Gowne, ftand naked, and entreat them
Then on ones Eares to have it. Proceed Communs,	For my Wounds fake, to give their fufferage :
"Com. I thattlad ex , ce: the deeds of Co interior	Pleafe you that I may paffe this doing. Secon. Sir, the People must have their Voyces,
Should not be vtter'd feebly . A held,	Neyther will they bate one iot of Ceremonie.
That Valour is the chiefeft Verron,	Bis & Putthen bottoo't:
And most dignifies the hauer. In 19 lies,	Pray you goe fit you to the Cuilome,
The man I speake of, cannot in the World	And take to you as your Predeceffors haue,
Be fingly counter-poys'd. At lixteene yecres,	Your Honor with your forme.
When Tarquin made a Head for Rome, he feught	Corro. It is a part that I fhall blufh in acting,
Beyond the marke of others: our then Dictator,	And might well be taken from the People.
Whom with all proyfe I point at, faw him fight, When with his Amazonian Shinne he droue	Brutua, Marke you that.
The brizled Lippes before hun : he beftrid	Corro. To brag vnto them, thus I did, and thus
An o're-preft Roman, and i'th' Confuls view	Shew them th'vnaking Skarres, which I fhould hide,
Slew three Oppofers: Tarquins felfe he met,	As if I had receiu'd them for the hyre Of their breath onely.
And frucke hum on his Knee : in that dayes feates,	Menen. Doe not fland vpon't:
When he might act the Woman in the Scene,	We recommend to you Tribunes of the People
He prou'd best man i'th' field, and for his meed	Our purpose to them, and to our Noble Consult
Was Brow-bound with the Oake. His Pupill age	Wish we all Ioy, and Honor.
	Senat. To

Schat To Cerielanue come all ioy and Honor. Ilenrifs Cornets.

Then Exempt. Manet Sicinum and Brushs. Brn. You fee how he intends to vie the people. Sciem. May they perceiue's intent: he wil require them As if he did contemne what he requested,

Should be in them to give.

Brs. Come, wee'l informe them Of our proceedings heere on th'Market place,

I know they do attend vs.

12

Enter fonen or eight Citizens.

1.Cit. Once if he do require our voyces, wee ou ght not to deny him.

2. Cit. We may Sir if we will.

2.Cu. We have power in our telues to do it, but it is a power that we have no power to do : For, if hee thew vs his wounds, and tell vs his deeds, we are to put our tongues into those wounds, and speake for them : So if he tel vs his Noble deeds, we must also tell him our Noble acceptance of them. Ingratitude is monfirous, and for the multitude to be ingratefull, were to make a Monster of the multitude; of the which, we being'members, should bring our felues to be monstrous members.

I.C.t. And to make vs no better thought of a little helpe will terue : for once we flood vp about the Corne, he himfelfe flucke not to call vs the many-headed Multitude.

3. Cit. We haue beene call'd fo of many, not that our heads are some browne, tome blacke, some Abram, some bald; but that our wits are fo diuerfly Coulord; and truely I thinke, if all our wittes were to iffue out of one Scull, they would flye Ealt, Wefl, North, South, and their confent of one direct way, fhould be at once to all the points a th Compatie.

2. Cit. Thinke you fo? Which way do you judge my wit would flye.

3.Cut. Nay your w t will not fo foone out as another mans will, 'tis ftrongly wadg'd vp in a blocke-nead : but fit were ac liberty, 'twould lute Southward.

2 Cit. Why that way?

3 Cr. To loole it felfer 1 a Pogge, where being diree parts melted away with rotten Dawes, the tout h would returne for Confeience fake, to helpe to get thee a Wite.

2 Cut. You aie neuer williout your trickes, you may, you may.

3 Cit. Are you all resolu'd to give your voyces? But that's no matter, the greater part care as it, I fay. If hee would include to the prople, there was never a worthier mən.

Enter Coriolanus in a gowne of Humility, with Menensus.

Heere he comes, and in the Gowne of humility, marke his behaviour : we are not to thay sltogether, but to come by him where he flands, by ones, by twoes, & by threes. He's to make his requelts by particulars, wherein euerie one of vs ha's a flogle Honor, in giving him our own voices with our owne tongues, therefore follow me, and lle direct you how you faill go by him.

All. Content, content.

Men. Oh Sir, you are not right : haue you not knowne The worthieft men haue dane'c?

Corso. What must liay, I pray Sir?

Plague vpon't, I cannot bring

My tougne to fuch a pace. Looke Sir, my wounds, I got them in my Countries Service, when Some certaine of your Brechren roar'd, and ranne

From th'noise of our owne Drummes.

Menen. Oh me the Gods, you must not speak of that, You must desire them to thinke vpon you.

Coriel. Thinke vpon me? Hang 'em, would they would forget me, like the Vertues

Which our Divines lose by em.

Men. You'l marre all,

lle leaue you : Pray you fpeake to em,I pray you In wholfome manner.

Exit

Enter three of the Citizens.

Corso. Bid them wash their Faces,

And keepe their teeth cleane : So,heere comes a brace,

You know the caufe (Sir) of my flanding heere.

3 Cit. We do Sir, tell vs what hath brought you too't. Corio. Mine owne defert.

2 Cut. Your owne delert.

Corio. I, but mine owne defire.

2 Cst. How not your owne defire?

Corio. No Sir, twas neuer my defire yet to trouble the poore with begging

3 Cu. You must thinke if we give you any thing, we hope to gaine by you.

Corro. Well then I pray, your price a'ch' Confulfhip. 1 Cut. The price is, to aske it kindly.

Corro. Kindly fir, 1 pray let me ha't : I have wounds to fhew you, which fhall bee yours in private : your good voice Sir, what fay you? 2 CH. You shall ha't worthy Sir.

(orio. A match Sir, there's in all two worthie voyces begg'd : I haue your Almes, Adieu.

2 Cit. But this is fomething odde

2 Cut. And 'twere to give againe : but 'tis no matter. Exenst. Enter invo other Citizens, Coriol. Pray you now, if it may fland with the tune of your voices, that I may bee Confull, I have heere the Cuttomarie Gowne.

1. You have deferued Nobly of your Country, and you have not deferued Nobly.

Corsol. Your Ænigma.

1. You have bin a scourge to her enemies, you have bin a Rod to her Friends, you have not indeede loued the Common people.

Coriol You fhould account mee the more Vertuous, that I have not bin common in my Loue, I will fir flatter my sworne Brother the people to came a deerer estimation of them, tis a condition they account gentle: 3c fince the wifedome of their choice, is rather to have my Hat, then my Heart, I will practice the infinuating nod, and be off to them moft counterfetly, that is fir, I will counterfer the bewitchment of some popular man, and give it bountifull to the defirers : Therefore befeech you, I may be Confull:

2. Wee hope to finde you our friend : and therefore gine you our voices heartily.

1. You have receyued, many wounds for your Countrev.

Corsol. I wil not Seale your knowledge with fhewing them. I will make much of your voyces, and so trouble you no farther.

Both. The Gods give you ioy Sir heartily.

Corsol. Moft fweet Voyces :

Better it is to dye, better to sterne,

Then craue the higher, which first we do deserve. Why in this Wooluish tongue should I stand heere, To begge of Hob and Dicke, that does appeere

Their

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 12 Your most fweet Voyces: now you tone left your Veyces, Their needleffe Vouches: Custome calls me too'r. I have no further with you Was not this mockeries What Cuftome wills in all things, fhould we doo't ? The Duft on antique Time would lye vniwept, Scient. Why eyther were your guorant to fee'e? Or feeing ir, of fuch Childiin triendimetic. And mountainous Error be too highly heapt, For Truth to o're-peere. Rather then foole it io, To yeeld your Voyces? Brut. Could you not have told him, Let the high Office and the Honor go To one that would doe thus. I am halfe through, As you were leffon'd : When he had no Power, But was a pettic feruant to the State, The one part inffered, the other will I doe. Enter three Citizens more. He was your Enemie, euer spake against Your Liberties, and the Charters that you beare Here come mae Voyces. Your Voyces? for your Voyces I have fought, I'th' Body of the Weale : and now arriving A place of Potencie, and fway o'th' State, Watcht for your Voyces: for your Voyces, beare If he fhould full malignantly remaine Of Wounds, two dozen odde : Battailes thrice fix I have seene, and heard of: for your Voyces, Faft Foe toth' Plebey, your Voyces might Be Curfes to your felues. You fhould have faid, Have done many things, some leffe, some more : Your Voyces? Indeed I would be Confull. That as his worthy deeds did clayme no leffe Then what he flood for: fo his gracious nature 1. Cit. Hee ha's done Nobly, and cannot goe without any honeft mans Voyce. Would thinke vpon you, for your Voyces, And tranflate his Mallice towards you, into Love, 2.Cit. Therefore let him be Confull : the Gods give him had make him good friend to the People. Standing your friendly Lord, Scient. Thus to have faid, All. Amen, Amen. God faue thee; Noble Confull. Corio. Worthy Voyces. As you were fore-aduis'd, had toucht his Spirit, And try'd his Inclination: from him pluckt Enter Menenius, with Brutus and Scicinius. Eyther his gracious Promife, which you might As caufe had call'd you vp, have held him to; Ment.' You have flood your Limitation : Or elfe it would have gall'd his furly nature, And the Tribunes endue you with the Peoples Voyce, Which eafily endures not Article, Remaines, that in th'Officialt Markes inuested, Tying him to ought, fo putting him to Rage, You fhould haue to'ne th'aduantage of his Choller, You anon doe meet the Senated zer Corio. Is this done? And pats'd him vnelected, Sciein. The Cuftome of Request you have difcharg'd: . Brut. Did you perceiue, He did follicite you in tree Contempt, The People doe admit you and are fummon'd To meet snon, vpon your approbation. When he did need your Loues: and doe you thinke, Corio. Where? at the Senate-houfe? That his Contempt fhall not be brufing to you, Scicin. There, Coriolanne. When he hath power to cruth? Why, had your Bodyes Corso. May I change these Garments? No Heart among you? Or had you Tongues, to cry Scien. You may, Sir. Against the Rectorship of Judgement? Cori. That Ile ftraight do: and knowing my felfe again, Sciem. Haue you, ere now, deny'd the asker : Repayre toth' Senate-houfe. And now againe, of him that did not aske, but mock, -Mene. Ile keepe you company. Will you along ? Bettow your fu'd-for Tongues? Brut. We stay here for the People. 3. Cir. Hee's not confirm'd, we may deny him yet. Scicin, Fare you well. Exennt Coriol. and Mene. 2.Cit. And will deny him : lle haue fiue hundred Voyces of that found. He ha's it now : and by his Lookes, me thinkes, Tis warme at's heart. 1.Cit. I twice fiue hundred & their friends, to piece 'em, Brnt. With a prowd heart he wore his humble Weeds : Brut Get you henceanstantly, and tell those friends, Will you difmifie the People? They have chose a Confull, that will from them take Enter the Plebeians, Their Liberties, make them of no more Voyce Seici How now, my Mafters, haue you chofe this inan? Then Dogges, that are as often beat for barking, 1.Cu. He ha's our Voyces, Sir. As therefore kept to doe fo. Brut. We pray the Gods, he may deferue your loues. Scici. Let them affemble; and on a fafer Indgement, a. Cit. Amen, Sir: to my poore enworthy notice, All reuoke your ignorant elections Enforce bis Pride, And his old Hate vnto you: belides, forget not He mock'd vs, when he begg'd our Voyces. 2. Cit. Certainely, he flowted vs dawne-right. With what Contempt he wore the humble Weed, 1.Cit. No,'tis his kind of speech, he did not mock vsi How in his Suit he fcorn'd you: but your Loues, 2.Cu. Not one amongst vs, saue your felfe, but sayes Thinking vpon his Seruices, tooke from you He vs'd vs fcornefully : he fhould have fhew'd vs Th'apprehension of his present portance His Marksof Merit, Wounds receiu'd for's Countrey. Which most gibingly, vngrauely, he did fashion Scicia_Why fo he did I am fure. After the inuccerste Hate he beares you. All. No,no: no man faw 'cm. Brat. Lay a fault on vs, your Tribunes, 3. ChuiHee faid heehad Wounds, That we labour'd (no impediment betweene) Which he could fhew is private : But that you must cast your Election on him. And with his Hat, thus waning it in fcorue, Scici. Say you chole bim, more after our commandment, I would be Confull, fayes he : aged Cuftome, Then as guided by your owne true affections, and that But by your Voyces, will not so permit me. Your Voyces therefore: when we grounted that, Here was, I thanke you for your Voyces, thanke you: Your Minds pre-occupy'd with what you rather muft do, Then what you should, made you against the graipe To Voyee him Confull, Lay the fault on vs. ьь Bint. 1

Brnt. I, spare vs not : Say, we read Lectures to you, How youngly he began to serue his Countrey, How long continued, and what flock he springs of, The Noble House o'th' Martians : from whence came That Ancus Martius, Numaes Daughters Sonne: Who after great Hostimu here was King, Of the same House Publicus and Quintus were, That our best Water, brought by Conduits hither, And Nobly nam'd, so twice being Censor, Was his great Ancestor

14

Was his great Anceftor Seicim. One thus defcended, That hath befide well in his perfon wrought, To be fer high in place, we did commend To your remembrances: but you haue found, Skaling his prefent bearing with his paft, That hee's your fixed enemie; and reuoke Your fuddaine approbation.

Brwt. Say you ne'te had don't, (Harpe on that fill) but by our putting on: And prefently, when you have drawne your number, Repaire toth' Capitoll.

All. We will fo: almost all repent in their election. Exempt Pleberans.

Brut. Let them goe on: This Mutinie were better put in hazard, Then flay paft doubt, for greater: If, as his nature is, he fall in rage With their refutall, both observe and answer The vantage of his anger.

Sciente, Toth' Capitoll, come: We will be there before the fireame o'ch' People: And this fhall feeme, as partly 'tis, their owne, Which we have goaded on-ward. Exempt.

Actus Tertius.

Cornets. Enter Coriolanus, Merensus, all the Centry, Comining, Titus Latine, and other Senators. Corio. Tallas Auffideus then had made new head. Latins. He had my Lord, and that it was which caus'd Our swifter Composition. Corio. So then the Volces fand but as at firft, Readie when time thall prompt them, to make roade Vpon's againe. Com. They are worne (Lord Confull) fo, That we shall hardly in our ages see Their Banners wane againe. Corro. Saw you Auffidins? Laturs. On lafegard he came to me, and did curle Against the Voices, for they had so vildly Yeelded the Towne : he is retyred to Antium. Corio. Spoke he of me? Launs. He did, my Lord. Corso, How ? what ? Latins. How often he had met you Sword to Sword: That of all things upon the Earth, he hated Your person most : That he would pawne his fortunes To hopelesse restaution, so he might Be call'd your Vanquisher. Corso. At Antium lives he? Laturs. At Antium. Corio. I with I had a caufe to feeke him there, To oppose his hatred fully. Welcome home. Enter Sciennes and Bruins. Behold, thefe ste the Tribunes of the People, The Tongues o'th' Common Mouth. I do despise them :

For they doe pranke them in Authoritie, Against all Noble sufferance. Scicin. Passe no further. Cor. Hah? what is that? Brut. It will be dangerous to goe on-- No further. Corio. What makes this change? Mene. The matter? Com. Hath he not pais'd the Noble, and the Common? Brut. Cominius, no. Corio. Haue I had Childrens Voyces? Senat. Tribunes give way, he shall toth' Market place, Brut. The People are incens'd against him. Sciem. Stop, or all will fall in broyle. Corro. Are these your Heard? Muss these haue Voyces, that can yeeld them now, And Braight disclaim their toungs? what are your Offices? You being their Mouthes, why rule you not their Teeth? Haue you not fet them on? Mene. Be calme, be calme. Coris. It is a purpos'd thing, and growes by Plot, To curbe the will of the Nobilitie : Suffer'r, and live with fuch as cannot rule, Nor euer will be ruled. Brut. Call't not a Plot : The People cry you mockt them : and of late, When Corne was given them gratie, you repin'd Scandal'd the Suppliants : for the People, call'd them Ti ne-plesfers,flatterers, fors to Nobleneffe, Corio. Why this was knowne before. Brut. Not to them all. Corso. Haue you inform'd them fithence ? Brut. How? I informe them? com. You are like to doe fuch bufineffe. Brut Not vnlike each way to better yours. Corso. Why then fould I be Confull? by yond Clouds Let me deferue soull as you, and inake me Your fellow Tribune. Scients. You fnew too much of that, For which the People flirre: if you will paffe To where you are bound, you must enquire your way, Which you are out of, with a gentler fpirit, Or neuer be fo Nobleas a Confull, Nor yoake with him for Tribune. Mene. Let's be calme. Com. The People are abus'd : fcr on this paltring Becomes not Rome : nor ha's Coriolanus Deferu'd this fo dishonor'd Rub, layd falfely I'ch' plaine Way of his Merit. Corie. Tell me of Corne: this was my speech, And I will speak't againe. Mene. Not now, not now. Senat. Not in this heat, Sir, now. Corro. Nowas I live, I will. My Nobler friends, I craue their pardons s For the mutable ranke-sented Meynie, Let them regard me, as I doe not flatter, And therein behold them felues : I fay againe, In foothing them, we nourifh 'gainft our Senate The Cockle of Rebellion, Infolence, Sedicion, Which we our felues have plowed for. fow'd & fcatter'd, By mingling them with vs, the honor'd Number, Who lack not Vertue, no, nor Power, but that Which they have given to Beggers. Mene. Well, no more. Senar, No more words, we beleech you. Cerro, How? no more? ۸ı

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 15		15
As for my Country, I have faed my blood,	Call our Cares, Feares ; which will	intime
Not fearing outward force : So shall my Lungs	Breake ope the Lockes a'th'Senate,
Coine words till their decay, against those Meazels	The Crowes to pecke the Eagles.	5
Which we disdaine should Tetter vs, yet sought	Mene. Coincenough.
The very why to catch them.	Brs. Enough, with ouer measur	e.
Brn. You ipeake a'th'people, as if you were a God,	Corso. No, take more.	••
To punish; Not a man, of their Infirmity.	What may be tworne by, both Di	nine and Humane.
Sicin. 'Twere well we let the people know't.	Scale what I end withall. This dou
Mene. What, what? His Choller?	Whereon part do's difdaine with ca	• -
Cor. Choller? Were I as patient as the miduight fleep,	InTult without all reason : where G
By Joue, 'twould be my minde.	Cannot conclude, but by the yea ar
Sicin , It is a minde that fhall remain a poilon	Of generall Ignorance, it mult on
Where it is : not poylon any further.	Reall Neceffities, and give way the Corio. Shall remaine?
	To vnftable Slightneffe, Purpoje 1
Heare you this Triton of the Minnones? Marke you	Nothing is:done to purpose. There
His abtolute Shall?	You that will be leffe fearefull, the
Com. 'Twas from the Canron.	Fliat love the Fundamentall part of
Cor. Shall? O God ! but most vnwife Patricians: why	More then you doubt the change of
You graue, but wieakleffe Senators, haue you thus	A Noble life, before a Long, and W
Giuen Hidia heere to rhoole en Officer,	To impra Body with a dangerous
That with his percimptory Snall, being but	That's fure of death without it : at
The horne, and noise o'th'Moufters, wants not spirit	The Multitudinous Tongue, let the
To fay, hee'l turne your Current in a ditch,	The fweet which is their poyfon.
And make your Channell his? If he have power,	Mangles true indgement, and berea
Then vale your Ignorance : Ifnone,awake	Of that Integrity which flould bec
Your dangerous Lenity: If you are Learn'd,	Not having the power to do the go	od it would
Benot as common Feoles ; if you are not,	For th'ill which doth controul't.
Let them have Cushions by you. You are Plebeians,	Bru. Has faid enough.
If they be Senators : and they are no leffe,	Sicin. Ha's spoken like a Traitor	and fhall anfwer
When both your voices blended, the great'st taste	As Traitors do.	,
Most pallates theirs. They choose their Magistrate,	Corio. Thou wretch, delpight of	re-whelme thee :
And fuch a one as he, who puts his Shall,	What should the people do with th	efe bald Tribunes?
Hispopular Shall, against a grauer Bench	On whom depending, their obedier
Then cuer frown'd in Greece. By Ioue hunselfe,	To'th'greater Bench, in a Rebellion
It makes the Confuls bate; and my Soule akes	When what's not meet, but what n
To know, when two Authorities are vp,	Then were they chosen : in a better
Neicher Supreame ; How foone Confusion	Let what is meet, be faide it muftb
May enter 'twixt the gap of Both, and take	And throw their power s'ch'duft.	c meety
The angle this house	Bru. Manifeft Treafon.
The one by th'other. Com. Well, on to'th'Market place.	Sicm. This & Confull? No.
Corro. Who ever gave that Counfell, to give forth
The Comparish'Searce have granting as iteration wild	Enter an Adele.
The Come a'ch'Store-house gratis, as 'twas vs'd	Bin. The Ediles hoe : Let him h	e apprenerie zu :
Sometime in Greece.	Sum. Go callthe people, in wh
Mene. Well, well, no more of that.	Attach thee as a Traitorous Innou
Cor. Thogh there the people had more abfolute powre	A Foe to'th'publike Weale. Obey	I charge thee,
I fay they norifhe dilobedience: fed, the ruin of the State.	And follow to thine an fwer.
Brn. Why shall the people give	Corio. Hence old Goat.
One that speakes thus, their voyce?	All. Wee'l Surety him
Corso. Ile giue my Ressons,	Com. Ag'd fir, hands off.
More worther then their Voyces. They know the Corne	Corso Hence rotten thing, or I f	hall shake thy bones
Was not our recompence, refting well affur'd	Out of thy Garments.	-
They ne're did feruice for't ; being prest to'th' Warre,	Sicin, Helpe ye Citizens.
Euen when the Nauell of the State was touch'd,	Enter a rabble of Plebesans wit	b the Ædiles.
They would not sheed the Gates: This kinde of Service	Mene. On both fides more refp
Did not deserve Corne gratis. Being i'th'Warre,	Sicen. Heere's hee, that would i
There Mutimies and Renolts, wherein they shew'd	power.
Most Valous spoke not for them. Th'Acculation	Bru. Scize him Ædiles.
Which they have often made against the Senare,	All. Downe with him, downe w	vith him.
All caufe vnborne, dould neuer be the Native	2 Sen. Weapons, weapons, weap
Of our so franke Donation. Well, what then?	They all buffla about Core
How shall this Bosome-multiplied, digest	I ribunes, Parristing, Citizens : wh
The Senates Courselie ? Let deeds expresse
What's like entre their words, We did request it,	Sicinius, Brutus, Coriotanus, Civize
We are the garater pole, and in true feare	All. Peace, peace, peace, ftsy, h
They gave was due domands. Thus we debafe	Mene. What is about to bel Is
The Nature of our Seats, and make the Rabble	Confusions neese, 3 cannot speake.
THE VALUE OF OUR DEALS, AND MAKE THE MADINE	To'eb'peoples-Corislans, patience
	Bb 2	Sicin

.

.

.

.

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 10 Sciei. Heare me, People peace. One time will owe another, Al. Let's here our Tribune : peace, speake, speake, Corio. On faire ground, I could beat fortie of them. speake. Mene. I could my selfe take vp a Brace o'th' best of ! Scici. You are at point to lose your Liberties : them, yes, the two Tribunes. Martine would haus all from you; Martine, Com. But now 'tis oddes beyond Arithmetick, Whom late you have named for Confull. And Manhood is call'd Foolerie, when it ftands Menc. Fie, fie, fie, this is the way to kindle, not to Against a falling Fabrick. Will you hence, quench. Before the Tagge returne? whole Rage doth rend Sena. To vnbuild the Citie, and to lay all flat. Like interrupted Waters, and o're-beare Seici. What is the Citie, but the People? What they are vs'd to beare. All. True, the People are the Citie. Mene. Pray you be gone : Ile trie whether my old Wit be in request Brat. By the confent of all, we were establish'd the Peoples Magistrates. With those that have but little: this must be patcht All. You fo remaine. With Cloth of any Colour. Mene. And fo are like to doe. Com. Nay, come away. Excunt Coriolannu and Com. That is the way to lay the Citie flat, Cominius. To bring the Roofe to the Foundation, Patri. This man ha's marr'd his fortune. And burie all, which yet diffinely raunges Mene. His nature is too noble for the World: In heapes, and piles of Ruine. Scies. This deferves Death. He would not flatter Neptune for his Trident, Or Ione, for's power to Thunder. his Heart's his Month: Brut. Or let vs stand to our Authoritie, What his Breft forges, that his Tongue muft yent, Or let vs lose it : we doe here pronounce, And being angry, does forget that ever He heard the Name of Death, Vpon the part o'th' People, in whole power A Noife wisbin. Here's goodly worke. We were elected theirs, Martine is worthy Patri. I would they were a bed. Of present Death. Seici. Therefore lay hold of him: Mene. I would they were in Tyber. Beare him toth' Rock Tarpeian, and from thence What the vengeance, could he not fpeake 'em faire ? Enser Brutas and Sicinius with the rabble agains. Into destruction cast him. Sicm. Where is this Viper, Bras. Adiles feize him, That would depopulate the city, & be cuery man himfelf All Ple. Yeeld Martins, yeeld. Mene. You worthy Tribunes. Mene. Heare me one word, 'besech you Tribunes, Sicin. He shall be throwne downe the Tarpeian rock heare me but a word. With rigorous hands : he hath refifted Law, Ædiles. Peace, peace. Mene. Be that you feeme, truly your Countries friend, And therefore Law shall scorne him further Triall And temp'rately proceed to what you would Then the feuerity of the publike Power, Which he fo fets at naught. Thus violently redreffe. r Cit. He shall well know the Noble Tribunes are Brar. Sir, thole cold wayes, That feeme like prudent helpes, are very poyfonous, The peoples mouths, and we their hands. All. He Chall fure ont. Where the Disesse is violent. Lay hands upon him. And beare him to the Rock. Mene. Sir, fir, Corio. drawes bis Sword. Sicin. Peace. Me. Do not cry hauocke, where you shold but hunt Corso, No, Ile die here: With modeit warrant. There's fome among you have beheld me fighting, Come trie vpon your felues, what you have feene me. Sicin. Sir, how com'ft that you have holpe To make this refcue ? Mene. Downe with that Sword, Tribunes withdraw Mone, Heere me speake? As I do know a while. The Confuls worthinesse, fo can Insme his Faults, Brut. Ley hands vpon him. Mene. Helpe Martin, helpe : you that be noble, helpe Sicin. Confull? what Confull? Mene. The Confull Cerielanns. him young and old. All. Downe with him, downe with him. Excent. Brn. He Confull. In this Musinie, the Tribunes, the Ædiles, and the All. No,no,no,no,no. Mene. If by the Tribunes leave, People are beat in. Mene. Goe, get you to our House: be gone, away, And yours good people, I may be heard, I would craue a word ortwo, All will-be naught elfe: The which shall turne you to no further harme, 2. Sena. Get you gone. Com. Stand faft, we have as many friends as enemies. Then fo much loffe of time. Sic. Speake breefely then, Mene. Shall it be put to that ? For we are peremptory to difpatch Sena. The Gods forbid : I prythee noble friend, home to thy Houle, This Viporous Traitor : to eied him hence Were but one danger, and to keepe him heere Leaue vs to cure this Caufe. Mene. For'cis a Sore vpon vs, Our certaine death: therefore it is decreed, You cannot Tent your felfe: be gone, befeech you. He dyes to night. Menen. Now the good Gods forbidy Corio. Come Sir, along with vs. That our renowned Rome, whole gratitude Mene. I would they were Barbarians, as they are, Towards her deferued Children, is enroll'd Though in Rome litter'd: not Romans, as they are not, Though calued ith' Porch o'th' Capitoll : In Joues owne Booke, like an vnnaturall Dam -Be gone, put not your worthy Rage into your Tongue, Should now eate vp her owne. Sicin.

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 17
Stein. He's a Difease that muft be cut away.	To speake of Peace, or Warre, I taike of you,
Mene. Oh he's a Limbe, that ha's but a Disease	Why did you with me milder? Would you have me
Mortall, to cut st off. to cure it, easie.	False to my Nature ? Rather fay, I play
What ha's he done to Rome, that's worthy death?	The man I am,
Cilling our Enemies, the blood he hath loft	Volum, Oh fir, fir, fir,
Which I dare vouch, is more then that he hath	I would haue had you put your power well on
By many an Ounce) he dropp'd it for his Country :	Before you had worne it out.
	Corio. Let go.
And what is left, to loofe it by his Countrey,	Vol. You might have beene enough the man you are,
Vere to vs all that doo'r, and fuffer it
A brand to th'end a'th World.	Wich ftruing leffe to be fo : Leffer had bin
Sicin. This is cleane kamme.	The things of your dispositions, if
Brut. Meerely awry:	You had not fhew'd them how ye were dispos'd
When he did love his Country, it honour'd him.	Ere they lack'd power to crosse you.
Alenen. The ferture of the foote	Corio. Let them hang,
Being once gangien'd, is not then respected	Volum. I, and burne too.
or what before it was.	Enter Menenius with the Senators.
Bin. Weelbeareno more:	Men. Come, come, you have bin coo rough, fom thing
Purlue him to his house, and plucke him thence,	too rough : you mult returne, and mend it.
Leaft his infection being of eatching nature,	Sen. There's no remedy,
	Vnleffe by not fo doing, our good Citie
Spred further.
Menen. One word more, one word:	Cleave in the midd'ft, and perifi.
This 'iger-footed-rage, when it fhall find	Volum. Pray be counfail'd;
Ine barme of vnskan d iwiftnesse, will (too late)	I haue a heart as little apt as yours,
Tye Leaden poun is too's heeles. Proceed by Proceffe,	But yet a braine, that leades my vie of Anger.
Least parties (as he is belou'd) breake out,	fo better vantage.
And facke great Rome with Romanes.	Alene. Well faid, Noble woman :
Brut. If it were lo?	Before he should thus stoope to'th'heart, but that
Sicin. What do ye talke?	The violent fit a'th'time craues it as Phyficke
Haue we not had a tafte of his Obedience?	For the whole State; I would put mine Armour on,
Our Ediles finot: our feiues relified : come.	Which I can tearfely beare.
	Corio. What muft I do?
Mene. Confider t'us : He ha', bin bred i th'Warres
Since a could draw a Sword, and is ill-school'd	Mene. Returne to th Tribunes,
In boulted Language : Meale and Bran together	Corie. Well, what then? what then?
He throwes without diffinction. Giue me leave,	Mene. Repent, what you have spoke.
Ile go to him, and vndertake to bring him in peace,	Corso. For them, I cannot do it to the Gods,
Where he shall answer by a lawfull Forme	Muft I then doo t to them ?
(In peace) to his vimoit per.il.	Volum. You are too absolute,
1.Sen. Noble Tribunes,	Though therein you can neuer be too Noble,
It is the humane way : the other course	But when extremities speake. I have heard you say,
Will prove to bloody : and the end of it,	Honor and Policy, like vnfeuer'd Friends,
	I'th'Warre do grow together : Grant that, and tell me
Vuknowne to the Beginning.
Sic Noble Menenius, he you then as the peoples officer:	In Peace, while each of them by th'other loofe,
Mafters, lay downe your Weapons,	That they combine not there?
Bru. Go not home.	Corro. Tuih,tufh.
Sic. Meet on the Market place:wee'l attend you there:	Mane. A good demand.
Where if you bring not Martine, wee'l proceede	Volum. If it be Honor in your Warres, to seeme
In our full way.	The fame you are not, which for your best ends
Alenen. Ile bring him to you.	You adopt your policy : How is it leffe or worfe
Let me desire your company : he must come,	That it shall hold Companionship in Peace
Or what is worft will follow.	With Honour, as in Warre; fince that to both
Sena. Pray you let's to him. Exenst Omnes.	It fands in like request.
Enter Coriolanus with Nobles.	Corro Why force you this?
Corio. Let them pull all about mine cares, prefent me	Uolum . Becaule, that
Death on the Wheele, or at wilde Horfes heeles,	Now it lyes you on to ipeake to th'people:
Or pile ten hilles on the Tarpeian Rocke,	Not by your owne instruction, nor by'th'matter
That the precipitation might downessretch	Which your heart prompts you, but with fuch words
Below the beame of fight; yet will I ftill	That are but roated in your Tongue;
Be thus to then.	Though but Bailards, and Syllables
Encer Volumnia.	Of no allowance, to your bosomes truth.
Noble. You do the Nobler.	Now, this no more diffionors you at all,
Corro. I mule my Mother	Then to take in a Towne with gentle words,
Do's not approve me further, who was wont	Which elfe would put you to your fortune, and
To call them Wollen Vaffailes, things created	The hazard of much blood.
To buy and fell with Groats, to shew bare heads	Iwould diffemble with my Nature, where My Forumer and my Friends or Oaks required
In Congregations, to yawne, be flill, and wonder,	My Fortunes and my Friends at flake, requir'd
When one but of my ordinance flood vp	I should do so in Honor, I am in this

18 7	The Tragedie	e of Coriolanus.
Your Wife, your Sonne: Thefe Senators,t	he Nobles,	And by my Bodies action, teach my Minde
And you, will rather fnew our generall L	owts,	A most inherent Batenesse.
How you can frowne, then spend a fawne		Volam. At thy choice then:
For the inheritance of their loues, and faf	egard	To begge of thee, it is my more dif-honor,
Of what that want might ruine.		Then thou of them. Come all to ruine, let
Menen. Noble Lady,		Thy Mother rather feele thy Pride, then feare
Come goe with vs, speake faire: you may		Thy dangerous Stoutneffe : for I mocke at death
Not what is dangerous prefent, but the l	one	With as bigge heart as thou. Do as thou lift, Thy Valiantneffe was mine, thou fuck'ft it from me :
Of what is paft.		But owe thy Pride thy felfe.
Velum. I pry thee now, my Sonne, Goe to them, with this Bonnet in thy han	.d	Corio. Pray be content :
And thus farre having firetcht it (here be		Mother, I am going to the Market place:
Thy Knee buffing the ftones: for in fuch	bunneffe	Chide me no more. Ile Mountebanke their Louer,
Action is eloquence, and the eyes of th'i	enorant	Cogge their Hearts from them, and come home belou'd
More learned then the cares, waiing thy		Of all the Trades in Rome. Looke, I am going:
Which of en thus correcting thy flout h		Commend me to my Wife, Ile returne Confull,
Now humble as the ripeft Mulberry,	·	Or neuer truft to what my Tongue can do
That will not hold the handling : or fay t	o th eni ,	I'th way of Flattery further.
Thou are their Souldier, and being bred		Volum. Do your will. Exit Volumnia
Haft not the foft way, which thou do'ft o		Com.Away, the Tribunes do attend you:arm your felf
Were fit for thee to vie, as they to claym	ie,	To answer mildely : for they are prepar d
In asking their good loues, but thou wi	lt frame	With Acculations, as I heare more frong
Thy felfe (forfooth) hereafter theirs fo t	arre,	Then are vpon you yet.
As thou haft power and perfon.		Corio. The word is, Mildely. Pray you let vs go,
Menen. This but done,		Let them accuse me by insention : I Will answer in mine Honor.
Euen 25 she speakes, why their hearts we	ere yours :	Menen. I, but mildely.
For they have Pardons, being ask'd, as fr	ζζζ,	Corro. Well mildely be it then, Mildely. Exempt
As words to little purpole.
Volum. Prythee now, Goe, and be rul'd: although I know the	ou hadft rather	Erter Sicinims and Brutus.
Follow thine Encinie in a fierie Gulfe,		Brn. In this point charge him home, that he affects
	Enter Cominins.	Tyrannicall power : If he cuade vs there,
Here is Comming.		Inforce him with his enuy to the people,
Com. I haue beene i'ch' Market plac	e: and Sir 'cis fit	And that the Spoile got on the Autosis
You make strong partie, or defend your	: lelfe	Wasne're distributed. What, will he come?
By calmenesse, or by absence: all's in an	ger.
Ifenen. Onely faire speech.	,	Enter an Edile.
Com. I thinke 'cwill ferue, if he can	thereto frame his	Edile. Hee's comming.
spirit.		Bru. How accompanied?
Volume He must, and will:		Edsle. With old Menensus, and those Senators
Prythee now fay you will, and goe abo	ut it.	That alwayes fauoui'd him.
Corso. Must Igoe shew them my va	barb d Sconce?	Sicin. Haue you a Catalogue
Mult I with my bale Tongue give to m	y Noble Heart	Of all the Voices that we have procur'd, let downe by th Edile. I have : 't's ready. (Pole
A Lye, that it must beare well? I will o		Edile, I have : 'us ready. (Pole Siein, Have you collected them by Tribes?'
Yet were there but this fingle Plot, to l	ould arinde it	Edile. I haue,
This Mould of Martine, they to dust fh	Marker place	Sicro. Affemble prefently the people hither :
And throw's against the Winde. Toth' You have put me now to fuch a part, w	hich never	And when they heare me fay, it shall be so, i fhall discharge toth' Life.		I th'right and ftrength a'th'Coma ons : be it either
Com. Come, come, wee'le prompt	vou.	For death, for fine, or Banishment, then let them
Volum. I prythee now fweet Son,22	chou haft faid	If I fay Fine, cry Fine ; it Death, cry Death,
My praises made thee first a Souldier ;	lo	Infifting on the olde prerogative
To have my praile for this, performe a	part	And power i'th Truth a'th Cause,
Thou haft not done before.	•	Edile, I shall informe them.
Corio. Well, I must doo't :		Bru. And when such tune they have begun to cry,
Away my disposition, and possesse me		Let them not cease, but with s dinne confus'd
Some Harlot: Spirit : My throat of Wa	arre be turn'd,	Inforce the present Execution
Which guter'd with my Diumme into	a Pipe,	Of what we chance to Sentence.
Small as a 1 Eunuch, or the Virgin voy	ce	Edi. Very well.
I hat Babier Lill a-fleepe : The finiles o	of Knaues	Sicin. Make them be ftrong, and ready for this hint
Cent mmy checkes, and Schoole-boy	es Teares take vp	When we shall hap to giu't them.
The Glaffes of my fight : A Beggars T	ongue	Brn. Go about it,
Make motion through my Lips, and in	y Arm'd Knees	Put him to Choller straite, he hath bene vs'd
Who bow'd bur in my Sturop ' d1	ike his	Ever to conquer, and to have his worth
That hath . ecciu'd an Almes. v Inc	ot doo't,	Of contradiction. Being once chast, fie cannot

/

٨

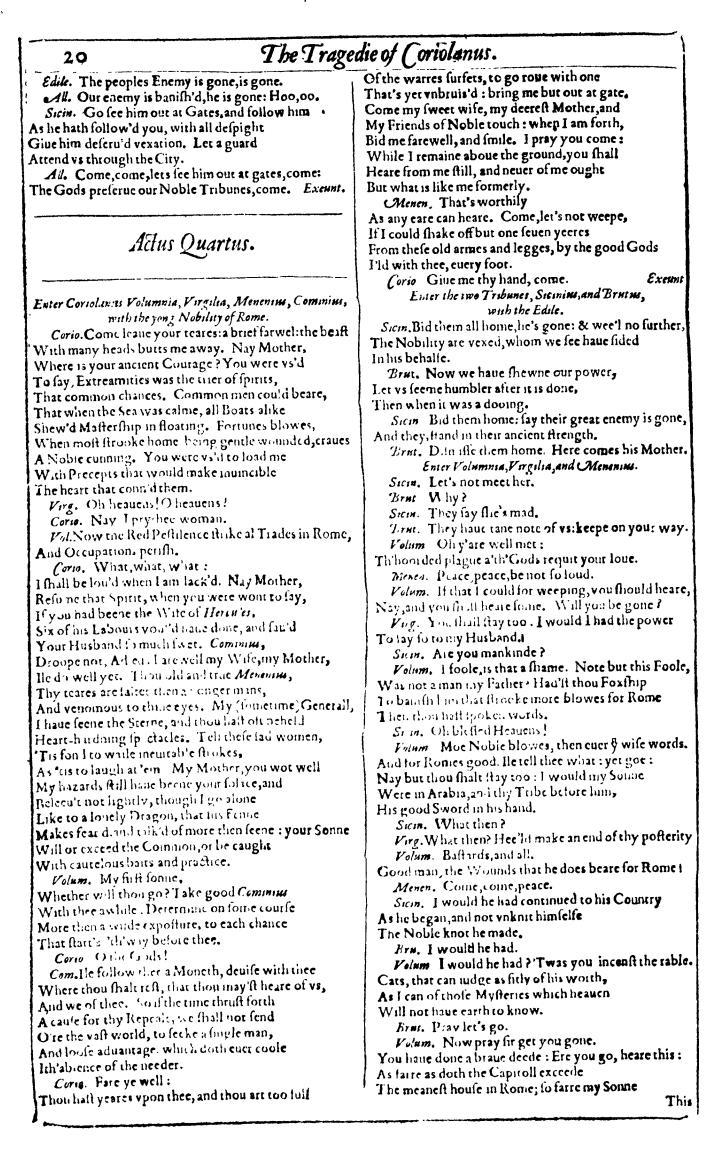

LeaR I furcease to honor mine cone truth,

III. ii. 65—III. iii. 28

Euer to conquer, and to haue his worth Of contradiction. Being once chaft, he cannot Be rein'd againe to Temperance, then he speakes

What s

The Tragedie of	<sup>f</sup> Coriolanus. 19	, ]
What's in his heart, and that is there which lookes	Beating your Officers, curfing your selues,
With vs to breake his necke.	Opposing Lawes with stroakes, and heere defying
Enter Coriolanne, Monenine, and Comi-	Those whose great power must try him.
mine , with others.	Even this fo criminall, and in fuch capitall kinde
Sicin. Well, heere he comes.	Deserues th'extreamest death.
Mene. Calmely, I do befeech you.	Brn. But fince he hath feru'd well for Rome.
Corso. I, as an Hoffler, that fourth poorest peece	Corso. What do you prate of Seruice.
Will beare the Knaue by th Volume :	Brut. I talke of that, that know it.	ł
Th'honor'd Goddes	Corio. You?	- 1
Keepe Rome in fafety, and the Chaires of Juffice	Mene, Is this the promife that you made your moth	ier.
Supplied with worthy men, plant loue amongs	Com. Know, Ipray you.
Through our large Temples with y fnewes of peace	Corio. Ile know no furthet :
And not our ftreets with Warre.	Let them pronounce the steepe Tarpeian death,
1 Sen. Amen, Amen.	Vagabond sxile, Fleaing, pent to linger	- 1
Mene. A Noble with.	But with a graine a day, 1 would not buy	1
Enter the Edile with the Plebeians.	Their mercie, at the price of one faire word,	- 1
Sicm. Draw neere ye people.	Nor checke my Courage for what they can give,	1
	To haue't with faying, Good morrow.
Peace I lay.	Sicin. For that he ha's
Corro. First heare me speake.	(As much as in him lies) from time to time	J
Both Tri, Well, fay : Peace hoe.	Enui'd against the people ; seeking meanes	1
Corso. Shall I be charg'd no further then this prefent ?	To plucke away their power: as now at last,	ļ
Must all determine heere?	Giuen Hoffile ftrokes, and that not in the prefence	1
Sicin. I do demand,	Of diesded Iuffice, but on the Ministers	1
If you fubmit you to the peoples voices,	That doth distribute it. In the name a'th'people,	1
Allew their Officers, and are content	And in the power of vs the Tribunes, wee	ł
To fuffer lawfull Cenfure for fuch faults	(Eu'n troin this inftant) banish him our Citie
As fhall be prou'd vpon you.	In perill of precipitation	1
Corio. 1 am Content.	From off the Recke, Tarpeian, neuer more
Mene. Lo Citizens, he sayes he is Contene.	To enter our Rome gates. I'ch'Peoples name,
The warlike Scruice he ha's done, confider : Thinke	I fay it shall bee so.
Vpon the wounds his body beares, which fhew	All It shall be so, it shall be so : let him away :
Like Graues i'th holy Church-yard.	Hee's banish'd, and it in 11 be so.	. (
Corso. Scratches with Briars, scattes to moue	( om. Heare me my Masters, and my common frien	:ds.
Laughter onely.	Sicin. He' entenc'd: No more hearing.
Mene. Confider further :	Com. Let me speake :	1
That when he speakes not like a Citizen,	I have bene Confull, and can shew from Rome
You finde him like a Soldier : do not take	Her Enemies markes vpon me. I do loue
His rougher Actions for malicious founds:	My Countries good, with a respect to ore tender,
But as I say, such as become a Soldier,	More holy, and profound, then mine owne life,
Rather then enuy you.	My deere Wiues estimate, her wombes encrease,
Com. Well, well, no more.	And treasure of my Loynes: then if I would
Corio. What is the matter,	Speake that.
That being past for Consull with full voyce :	Sicin. We know your drift. Speake what?	, 1
I am so difhonour'd, that the very houre	Brw. There's no more to be faid, but he is banish'd	· 1
You take it off againe.	As Enemy to the people, and his Countrey.
Sicin. Answer to vs.	It shall bee so.
Corso. Say then : 'tis true, I ought lo	AH. It shall be so, it shall be so.
Sicin. We charge you, that you have contriu'd to take	Corio. You common cry of Curs, whole breath I ha	1162
From Rome 311 seaton'd Office, and to winde	As reeke a'ch'rotten Fennes : whole Loues I prize,	[
Your selfe into a power tyrannicall,	As the dead Carkasses of vnburied men,
For which you are a Traitor to the people.	That do corrupt my Ayre : I banish you,
Corio. How? Traytor?	And heere remaine with your vncertaintie.
Mene. Nay temperately : your promise.	Let euery feeble Rumor shake your hearts :
Corso. The fires i'th'lowest hell. Fould in the people :	Your Enemies, with nodding of their Plumes
Call me their Traitor, thou iniurious Tribune.	Fan you into dispaire : Haue the power still
Within thine eyes fate twenty thousand deaths	To banift your Defenders, till at length
In thy hands clutcht : as many Millions in	Your ignorance (which findes not till it feeles,
Thy lying tongue, both numbers. I would fay	Making but referuation of your felues,
Thou lyest vnto thee, with a voice as free,	Still your owne Foes) deliuer you
As I do pray the Gods.	As molt abated Captines, to lome Nation
Sicin. Marke you this people?	That wonne you without blowes, despiling
All. To'th'Rocke, to'th'Rocke with him.	For you the City. Thus I turne my backe;
Siein, Peace:	There is a world elfewhere.	" I
We neede not put new matter to his charge :	Exenne Coriolanne, Cominine, with Gymal	デ・
What you have seene him do, and heard him speake :	They all bont, and threw up their Caps.	,

The Tragedi	e of Coriolanus. 21
This Ladies Husband heere; this ( do you fee)	caufe to be glad of yours.
Vhom you have banish'd, does exceed you all.	Rom. Well, let vs go togett er. Frenk
Brs Well, well, wee'l leaue vou.	Enser Coriolanes in meane Appassell, Lif-
Sicin. Why flay we to be baited	gwifd, and muffled.
Vith one that wants her Wits. Exit Tribunes.	Corio. A goodly City is this Antium. City,
Volum. Jake my Prayers with you.	Tis I that made thy Widdowes . Maoy an hevre would the Gods had nothing elfe to do,	Of these faire Edifices fore my Warres ut to confirme my Curffes. Could I meete 'em	Haue I heard groane, and drop : Then knew me not,
int once a day, it would vnclogge my heart	Leaft that thy Wives with Spits, and Boyes with float
Of what lyes heavy too'r.	In puny Battell flay me. Saue you fir.
Mene. You have told them home,	Enter a Citizen.
nd by my troth you have caufe : you'l Sup with me.	Cit. And you.
Volum. Angers my Meate : I suppe vpon my seife,	Corto. Direst me, if it be your will, where great nd fo fhall sterue with Feeding : Come, let's go,	fideres lies : Is he in Antmin?
easie this faint-puling, and lament as I do,	Cit. He is, and Feasts the Nobles of the Stare, at his n Anger, luno-like: Come, come, come. Exemnt	house this night.
Mene. Fie fie, fie. Exit.	Corro. Which is his house, beseech you?
Enter a Roman, and a Volce.	Cit. This heere before you.
Rom, I know you well fir, and you know meen your	Corio. Thanke you fir, farewell. Exit Citiz ame I thinke is Adrian.	Oh World, thy flippery turnes I Friends now fast I won
Volce. It is to fic, truly I have forgot you.	Who fe double bolomes feemes to weare one hearr,
Rom. I am a Roman, and my Seruices are as you are,	Whole Houres, whole Bed, whole Meale and Exercise
gamít em. Know you me yer.	Are full together : who Twin (as 'twere) in Loue,
Volce. Nicanor: no.	Vnfeparable, fhall within this houre,
Rom. The fame fir.	On a difference of a Doit, breake out
Volce. You had more Beard when I laft faw you, but	To bittereft Ennity: So fellett Foes, Whole Pathing, and whole Plats have broke, their Oc our Fauour is well appear'd by your Tongue. What's he Newes in Rome : I have a Note from the Volcean	Whofe Paffixing, and whofe Plots have broke their fle To take the one the other, by fome chance, late to finde you out there. You have well faued mee a	Some tricke not worth an I gge, shall grow deere frier
ayes sources.	And inter-ioyne their yflues. So with me,
Ram. There hath beene in Rome fraunge Infurrecti-	My Birth-place haue I, and my loves vpon ons: The people, against the Senatours, Patricians, and	This Enemie Towne : Ile enter, ifhe flay me
Jobles.	He does faire Juffice : if he give me way,
Vol. Hath bin; is it ended then? Our State thinks not	Ile do his Country Service.
o they are in a most warlike preparation, & hope to com	Musicke playes. Enter a Seruingman.
pon them, in the heate of their diution	1 Ser. Wine, Wine, Wine : What ferunce is heere ?
Rom. The maine blaze of it is past, but a finall thing	thinke our Fellowes are ssleepe.
vould make it flame againe. For the Nobles receyue fo	Enter another Servingman.
o heart, the Banishment of that worthy Coriolanua, that	2 Ser. Where's Counsiny M.cals for him: Corns. E
hey are in a ripe aptnesse, to take al power from the peo-	Enter Corpolantes.
le, and to plucke from them their Tribunes for ever.	Corso. A goodly House:
[his lyes glowing I can tell you, and is almoft mature for ]	The Feast smels well ; but I appeare not like a Guess.
he vio'ent breaking out.	Enter the first Serungman.
Vol. Coriolanius Banisht?	I Ser. What would you have Priend? whence are yo
Rom. Banish'd fir.	Here's no place for you : Pray go to the doore? 1
Vol. You will be welcome with this intelligence Ni-	Corto. I haue deserred no better entertainment, in
AMOT.	ing Coviolanme. Enter fecond Sernant.
Rom. The day ferues well for them now. I have heard	2 Ser. Whence are you hr? Ha's the Porter his eye is faide, the fittell time to corrupt a mans Wife, is when	his head, that he gives entrance to such Companions hee's faine out with her Husband. Your Noble Tuilm	Pray get you our.
Auffidine well appeare well in these Warres, his great	Corio. Away.
Oppoler Coriolanu being now in no requelt of his coun-	2 Ser. Away? Get you 2way.
trey.	Corro. Now thisre ti diolesome.
Volce. He cannot choofe : I am most fortunate, thus	2 Ser. Are you fo btme: He haue you talkt with a sceidentally to encounter you. You have ended my Bu-	Enter 3 Serningman, the 1 meets him.
fineffe, and I will merrily accompany you home.	3 What Fellowes this!
Rom, I shall betweene this and Supper, tell you most	1 A ftraige one zs ever I look'don!: I cannot get
Arange things from Rome : all tending to the good of	out o th'house · Prythee call my Master to him.
their Aducifaries, Haue you an Army ready fay you?	3 Wint have you to do here fellow? Pray you as
Vol. A most Royall one: The Centurions, and their charges diffingly billowed already in themeersainmens	the houle.
charges diffinely billetted already in thentertainment, and to be on foot at an houres warning.	Corio, Let me bur Aánd, I will not hurt your Hart
Rom. I am loyfull to beste of their readineffe.end am	3 What are you?
the man I shinko, that fhall fet them in prefent Action.So	Corio. A Gentleman.
fir, heartily well met, and mon glad of your Company.	3 A manifious poore one.
Volce. You sake my part from me fir, I base the moft	Corro. True, folam.
a second have reading a part of those	5 Pray you poore Geneléman, take vp fome other

.

•

י ו

,

, , 1

tell how to tearme it.

I He had fo, looking as it were, would I were hang'd but I thought there was more in him, then I could think. 2 So did I, ile be fworne: Heis fimply the rareft man i'th'world.

I I thinke he is : but a greater foldier then he,

You wot one.

2 Who my Mafter?

I Nay, it's no matter for that.

2 Worth fix on him.

1 Nay not fo neither: but I take him to be the greater Souldiour.

2 Faith looke you, one cannot tell how to fay that: for the Defence of a Towae, our Generall is excellent.

1 I, and for an affault too.

Enter the third Serningman.

3 Oh Slaues, I can tell you Newes, News you Rafcals Both. What, what, what? Let's partake.

; I would not be a Roman of all Nations; I had as liue be a condemn'd man.

Both. Wherefore? Wherefore?

Why here's he that was wont to thwacke our Generall, Caine Alartine.

1 Why do you fay, thwacke our Generall?

3 I do not lay thwacke our Generall, but he was alwayes good enough for him

2 Come we are fellowes and friends : he was ever too hard for him, I have heard him fay to himfelfe.

I He was too hard for him directly, to fay the Troth on't before Corroles, he fcotcht hun, and notcht hun like a Carbinado.

2 And hee had bin Cannibally giuen, hee might haue boyld and eaten him too.

i But more of thy Newes.

2 Why hers formade on here within, as if hee were Son and Heire to Mars, fet at vpper end o'ch'Table : No question askt him by any of the Senators, but they stand bald before hun, Our Generall himselfe makes a Milleis of him, Sanchifies himfelfe with's hand, and turnes vp the white o'th'eye to his Discourse. But the bottome of the Newes is, oui Generall is cut i'th'middle, & but one halfe of what he was yesterday. For the other ha's halfe, by the intreaty and graunt of the whole Table. Hee'l go he fayes, and fole the Porter of Rome Gates by th'eares. He will mowe all downe before him, and leave his passage poul'd.

And he's as like to do't as any man I can imagine.

3 Doo't? he will doo't : for look you fir, he has as many Friends as Fnemies : which Friends fir as it were, durft not (looke you fir) fhew them telues (as we termit it) his Friends, whileft he's in Directicude.

1 Directitude? What's that ?

3 But when they shall see fir, his Creft vp againe, and the man in blood, they will out of their Burroughes (like Conies after Raine) and reuell all with him.

I But when goes this forward:

3 To morrow, to day, presently, you shall haue the Drum frooke vp this afternoone : Tis as it were a parcel of their Feift, and to be executed ere they wipe their lips,

2 Why then wee shall have a ftirring World againe : This peace is nothing, but to ruft Iron, encrease Taylors, and breed Ballad-makers.

1 Let me haue Warre fay I, it exceeds peace as farre as day do's night : It's fprightly walking, audible, and full of Vent. Peace, is a very Apoplexy, Lethargie, mull'd, deafe, fleepe, insensible, a getter of more bastard Children, then warres a deftroyer of men.

'Tis fo, und as warres in fome fort may be faide to be a Ravisher, fo it cannot be denied, but peace is a great maker of Cuckolds.

1 I, and it makes men hate one another.

3 Reafon.becaufe they then leffe neede one another : The Warres for my money. Ihope to lee Romanes as cheape as Volcians. They are rifing, they are rifing. Borb. In, in, in, in.

Enter the two Tribunes, Sicining, and Bratme.

Sicin. We heare not of him, neither need we fear him, His remedies are tanie, the prefent peace, And quietnesse of the people, which before Were in wilde hurry. Heere do we make his Friends Bush, that the world goes well : who rather had, Though they them felues di l fuffer by 't, behold Diffencious numbers peftring ftreets, then fee Our Tradelmen finging in their fhops, and going About their Functions friendly.

Enter Menenini.

Bru. We flood too't in good time. Is this Alerenism? Sicin. 'Tis he,'tis he : Ohe is grown moft kind of late: Haile Sir. Mere. Haile to you both.

Sicin. Your Coriolinus is not much mift, but with his Friends : the Commonwealth doth fland, and fo would do,were he more angry at it.

Mone. All's well, and might have bene much better, if he could have temporiz'd.

Sicis. Where is he, heare you?

Mene. Nay I heard nothing :

His Mother and his wife, heare nothing from him.

Enter three or foure Casizens.

All. The Gods preferue you both.

Siem. Gooden our Neighbours.

Bru. Gooden to you all, gooden to you all.

1 Our sclues, our wines, and children, on our knees, Are bound to pray for you both.

Sicin. Luc, and thriue.

Brn. Farewellkinde Neighhours':

We witht Correlands had lou'd you as we did:

All. Now the Gods keepe you.

Exennt Citizens Both Tri. Farewell, farewell. Sicin. This is a happier and more comely time,

Then when these Fellowes ran about the ftreets, Crying Confusion.

BIN. CAINS Martin Was

A worthy Officer I'th'Warre, but Infalent,

O'recome with Pilde, Ambitious, paft all thinking

Selfe-Iouing.

Sicin And affecting one fole Throne, without affifiace Aline. I thinke not fo.

Secon. We should by this, to all our Lamention, If he had gone forth Confull, found it fo.

Brw. The Gods have well prevented it, and Rome Sits fafe and full, without him.

Enter an Ædile.

Æd.le. Worthy Tribunes,

There is a Slave whom we have put in prifon,

Reports the Volces with swo feuerall Powers

Are entred in the Roman Territories,

And with the deepeft malice of the Warre,

Deftroy, what lies before'em. Mene. 'Tis Auffidius,

Who hearing of our Martine Banifhment,

Thrufts forth his hornes againe into the world Which were In-shell'd, when Martine flood for Ronse,

And

The Tragedie of Coriolanas. 24 The breach of Garlicke-eaters. And durft not once peepe out. Con. Hee'l thake your Rome about your cares. Sicin. Come, what talke you of Marine. Mene, As Herenles did fbake downe Mellow Fruite ; Brn. Go'lee this Rumorer whipt, it cannot be, You have made faire worke. he Volces dare breake with vs. Brut. But is this true fir? Mene. Cannor be? Com, I, and you'l looke pale We have Record, that very well it can, Before you finde it other. All the Regions And three examples of the like, hath beene Within my Age. But reason with the fellow Do fmilingly Reuolt, and who refifts Are mock'd for valiant Ignorance, Before you punish him, where he heard this, And perifh conftant Fooles: who is't can blame him ? Leaft you shall chance to whip your Information, Your Enemies and his, finde fomething in him, And beate the Mellenger, who bids beware Mene. We are all vndone, vnleffe Of what is to be dreaded. Sicm. Tell not me : 1 know this cannot be. The Noble man have mercy. Com. Who fhall aske it? Brn. Not possible. The Tribunes cannot doo't for fhame ; the people Enter a Mellenger. Deferue fuch pitty of him, as the Wolfe Mef. The Nobles in great earneftnesse are going All to the Senate-house : some newes is comming Doe's of the Shepheards : For his best Friends, if they Should fay be good to Rome, they charg'd him, euen That turnes their Countenances, As those should do that had deserv'd his hate, Sicin. 'Tis this Slaue : And therein fnew'd like Enemics. Go whip him fore the peoples eyes : His raifing, Nothing but his report. Mef. Yes worthy Sir, Me. Tis true, if he were putting to my house, the brand That foould confume it, I have not the face To fay, befeech you ceafe. You haue made faire hands, The Slaues report is seconded, and more You and your Crafte, you have crafted faire. Com. You have brought More fearfull is deliuer'd. Siein. What more fearefull? Mef. It is spoke freely out of many mouchs, A Trembling vpon Rome, fuch as was neuer, S'incapeable of helpe. Howprobable I do not know, that Martine loyn'd with Auffidim, leads a power 'gaint Rome, Tri. Say not, we brought it. Mene. How? Was't we? We lou'd him, And vowes Reuenge as spacious, as betweene But like Beafts, and Cowardly Nobles The yong'ft and oldeft thing. Gaue way vnto your Clusters, who did hoote Sicin. This is most likely. Him out o'th'Citty, Bru. Rais'd onely, that the weaker fort may with Com. But I feare Good Martine home againe. They'l roare him in againe. Tullus Auffidins, Sicin. The very tricke on't. The fecond name of men, obeyes his points Mene. This is vulkely, As if he were his Officer : Desperation, He, and Auffidim can no more attone Is all the Policy, Strength, and Defence Then violent's Contrariety. That Rome can make against them. Enter Messenger. Enter a Trospe of Cstizens. Mef. You are fent for to the Senates Mene. Heere come the Clusters. A fearefull Army, led by Caine Martine, And is Auffidius with him? You are they Affociated with Auffidim, Rages That made the Ayre vnwholfome, when you caft Vpon our Territories, and have already Your funking, grease Caps, in hooting O're-borne their way, confum'd with fire, and tooke At Coriolania Exile. Now he's comming, What lay before them. And not a haire vpon a Souldiers head Enter Cominima. Which will not proue a whip : As many Coxcombes Com. Oh you have made good worke. As you threw Caps vps will he sumble downe, Mene. What newes ? What newes? And pay you for your voyces. 'Tis no matter, Com. You have holp to raush your owne daughters,& If he could burne vs all into oue coale, To melt the Citty Leades vpon your pates, To fee your Wives difhonour'd to your Nofes. We haue deseru'd it. Omner. Faith, we heare fearfull Newes. Mene. What's the newes? What's the newes? 1 Cst. For mine owne part, Com. Your Temples burned in their Ciment, and When I faid banifh him, I faid 'twas pirty. Yout Franchifes, whereon you ftood, confin'd 2 And fodid I. Into an Augors boare. 3 And fo did I: and to fay the truth, fo did very ma-Miene. Pray now, your Newes : ny of vs. that we did we did for the best, and though wee You haue made faire worke I feare me : pray your newes, willingly confented to his Banishment, yet it was against If Martina fhould be joyn'd with Volceans. Com. If? He is their God, he leads them like a thing our will Made by fome other Deity then Napute, Com. Y'are goodly things, you Voyces. That shapes man Better : and they follow him Mene. You have made good worke You and your cry. Shal's to the Capitoll? Against vs Brats, with no leffe Confidence, Then Boy es pursuing Summer Butter-flies, Or Butchers killing Flyes. Com. Oh I, what elfe ? Sieim. Go Maiters get you home, be not diimaid, These are a Side, that would be glad to have This true, which they so seeme to seare. Go home, Mene. You have made good worke, You and your Apron men: you, that flood fo much And thew no figne of Feare. Vpon the voyce of occupation, and

1. Cit.

Exenns bosh.

The Tragedie o	of Coriolanus. 25
I (it. The Gods bee good to vs : Come Masters let's	Come let's away : when Cause Rome is thine, home, I euer faid we were i'th wrong, when we banish'd	Thou art poor it of all; then ihertly art thou mine exer him. 2 Cit. So did we all. Bur come, let's home. Exit Cit.
Bru. I do not Like this Newes.
Sicin. Nor I.	Actus Quentus.
Brn. Let's to the Capitoll: would halfe my wealth	l e
Would buy this for a lye.
Sicin. Pray let's go. Exeunt Tribunes.	Enter Meninius, Comminius, Sicinius, Brutus,
Enter Auffidine with bis Lieutenant,	the two I ribunes with athers.
Auf. Do they thill flye to'th Roman? 9c:-	Menen. No, lle not go: you heare what he hath faid
Liew. I do not know what Witcherafr's in him : but Your Soldiers vie him as the Grace 'fore meate,	Which was foretime his Generall: who loued him
Their talke at Table, and their Thankes at end,	In a most deere particular. He call'd me Father : But what e'that?Co you that panish d him
And you are darkned in this action Sir,	A Mile before his I ent, te l'downe, and knee
Eucoby your owne.	The way into his mercy : Nay, it he coy d
Auf l'canno: heiptit now.	1 o heare Communicas speake, Ile keepe at home.
Vnleile by ving meanes Hame the foot	Com. He would not iceme to know me.
Di our designe. He beaues himielte more proudlier,	Aleren. Do you heare?
Euchteners perfor their thought he would When build disclose him. Yet his Naters	Com. Yet one time he did call me by my name :
in that's no Chaoge bing, and I niuft excute	i vrg'd our old acquaintance, and the drops
What cannot be amended.	Hawould not aniwer 100: Forbad all Names,
Lion. Yet i will Sir,	Fe was a kinde of Noth ng, Ittlelefle,
(I means for you, particular) you had not	Tell he had forg'd himfelfe aname a'ch fire
loyn'd in Commission with him : but either haue borne	Ot burning Rome.
The action of your felfe, or else to him had left it foly.	Monen Why fo : you have made good worker
Auf. 1 vndeitland thee well, and be thou fure	A paire of Tribunes, that have wrack d for Rome,
When he fhall come to his account, he knowes not	Tomshe Coule cheape : A Noblememory.
What I can vrge against him, although it leemes And so he thinkey, and is no less apparant	Com. I nunded him, bow Rovall 'twas to parden
Fo th'vulgar eye, that he beares all things fairely :	When it was lesse expected. Hereplyed It was a bate petition of a State
And thewes good Husbandry for the Volcian State,	To one whom they had pusifie d.
ights Diagon-like, and does a checue as foone	Monan. Very well, could he fay leffe.
As draw his Sword : yethe nut a left valone	Com. 1 offered to awaken his regard
[hatwhich flial] breake his necke, or hizard mine,	For's private Friends. His answer to me was
When ere we come to our account.	He could not fray to picke them, in a pile
Lien. Sir, I beizech you, think you he'l earry Rome?	Ofnoylonie mufly Chaffe. He faid, 'twas folly
Anf. All places yeelds to him ere he fits downe, And the Nobility of Rome are his :	For one poore graine or two, to leave vnburnt
The Senators and Patricians love him too:	And fill to noie th offence.
The Tribunes are no Soldiers ; and their people	Menen. For one poore graine or two? I am one of thole : his Mother, Wife, his Childe,
Will be as rash in the repeale, as hasty	And this braue Fellow too : we are the Graines, lo expell hun thence. I thinke hee l be to Rome	You are the mufly Chaffe, and you are fmelt
As is the Aspray to the Fish, who takes it	Abouethe Moone. We must be burnt for you,
By Soueraignty of Nature. Full, he was	Sicin. Nay, pray be patient: If you refuie your ayde
A Noble feruant to them, but he could not	In this to never-needed helpe, yet do not Carry his Honors eeuen : whether 'was Pride Which out of dayly Fortune eyer raints	Vpbraid's with our diftreffe. But fure if you
Which out of dayly Fortune cuer taints The happy man ; whether detect of judgement,	Would be your Countries Pleader, your good tongue
To faile in the disposing of those chances	More then the inftant Armie we can make Might ftop our Countryman.
Which he was Lord of: or whether Nature,	Mene. No: Ile not meddle.
Not to be other then one thing, not mooung	Sicin. Pray you go to him.
romth'Caske to th'Cufhion : but commanding peace	Mone. What should I do?
Even with the fame aufterity and garbe,	Bru. Onely make triall what your Loue can do,
As he controll'd the warre. But one of these	For Rome, towards Martina,
As he hath fpices of them all ) not all,	Mene. Well, and fay that Martins returne mee, or I dare fo farre free him, made him fear'd, so hated, and fo banifh'd: but he ha's a Merit	As Community is return'd, wheard: what then?
To choake it in the vit'rance: So our Vertue,	But 25 a difcontented Friend, greefe-fhor With his unkindnesse. South he for 2
Lie in th'interpretation of the time,	With his vnkindneffe. Say't be fo? Sicin. Yet your good will
And power vnto it felfe most commendable,	Muft have that thankes from Rome, after the measure lath not a Tombe so euident as a Chaire	As you intended well.
extoll what it hath done.	Mone. Ile vndertak't :
Dne fire drives out one fire ; one Naile, one Naile ;	I thinke hee'l heare me. Yet to bite his lip, lights by rights fouler, strengths by strengths do faile.	And humme at good Comining, much vnhearts mee.

.

,

	-
7	~
-	U

ť

The Tragedie of Coriolanus.

He was not taken well, he had not din'd, Mene. I am as thy Generall is. The Veines vnfill'd, our blood is cold, and then Then you fhould hate Rome, as he do's. Can you, We powt vpon the Morning, are vnapt when you have pusht out your gates, the very Defender To giue or to forgiue; but when we have flufft These Pipes, and these Conucyances of our blood of them, and in a violent popular ignorance, giuen your enemy your fhield, thinke to front his revenges with the With Wine and Feeding, we have suppler Soules eafie groanes of old women, the Virginall Palms of your Then in our Priest-like Fafts: therefore Ile watch him daughters, for with the palfied interceffion of fuch a de-Till he be dieted to my requeft, cay'd Dotant as you feeme to be? Can you think to blow out the intended fire, your City is ready to flame in, with And then Ile fet vpon him. fuch weake breath as this? No, you are deceiu'd, therfore Brn. You know the very tode into his kindneffe, And cannot lose your way. backe to Rome, and prepare for your execution : you are Mene. Good faith Ile proue him, condemn'd, our Generall has fworne you out of reprçeue Speed how it will. I shall ere long, have knowledge and pardon. Of my fucceffe. Exit. Mene. Sirra, if thy Captaine knew I were heere, Com. Hee'l neuer heare him, He would vie me with estimation. Sicin. Not. 1 Come, my Captaine knowes you not. Com. I tell you, he doe's fit in Gold, his eye Mene. I meane thy Generall. Red as 'ewould burne Rome : and his Insury 1 My Generall cares not for you. Back I fay, go leaft The Gaoler to his pitty. I kneel'd before him, I let forth your halfe pinte of blood. Backe, that's the vt-'Twas very faintly he faid Rife: difnift me most of your having, backe. Thus with his speechlesse hand. What he would do Mene. Nay but Fellow, Fellow. He fent in writing after me ; what he would not, Enter Coriolanne with Auffidins. Bound with an Oath to yetld to his conditions: Corio. What's the matter ? So that all hope is vaine, vulefie his Nuble Mother, Mene. Now you Companion: Ile fay an arrant for you: you fhall know now that I am in effimation : you fhall And his Wife, who (as I beare) meane to folicite nim For mercy to his Countrey : therefore let's hence, perceiue, that a lacke gardant cannot office me from my Son Coriolanne, gueffe but my entertainment with hum: if And with our faite intreaties halt them on. Exenne thou ftand ft not i'th ftate of hanging, or of fome death Enter Merenius to the Watch or Guard. I Was, Stay, whence are you, more long in Spectatorship, and crueller in suffering, be-2 War, Stand, and go backe. hold now prefently, and fwoond for what's to come vpon Me. You guard like men, 'tis well But by your leave, thee. The glutious Gods fit in hourely Synod about thy I am an Officer of State, & come to fpeak with Corsolanne articular prosperity, and love thee no worse then thy old 1 From whence? Mene. From Rome Father Menenina do's. O my Son, my Son! thou art pre-You m-y not paffe, you niust returne : our Generall paring fire for vs : looke thee, heere's water to quench it, will no more heare from thence. I was hardly moved to come to thee, but beeing affured 2 You'l Le your Rome embrac'd with fire, before none but my felfe could moue thee 1 laue bene blowne out of your Gates with fighes : and consure thee to par-You'i ipeake with Corislania. Mene. Good my Friends, don Rome, and thy petitionary Countilmen. The good If you have heard your Generall talke of Rome, Gods offwage thy wrath, and turne the dregs of it, vpoin And of his Friends there, it is Lots to Blankes, this Varlet heere: This, who like a blocke hash denyed My name hath touch't your eares : it is Menenine. my acceffe to thee. I Best fo, go back: the vertue of your name, Corie. Away Is not heere passable. Mone. How? Away? Mene. I tell thee Fellow, Corio. Wife, Mother, Child, I know not. My affaires Thy Generall is my Louer : I have beene Are Servanted to others : Though I owe The booke of his good Acts, whence men haue read My Reuenge properly, my remifion lies His Fame unparalell'd, happely amplified : In Volcean brefts. That we have beene familiar, For I have ever verified my Friends, Ingrate forgetfulneffe shall poifon rather (Of whom hee's chee'e) w. h all the fize that verity Then pitty : Note how much, therefore be gone. Would without lapfing foffer . Nay, fometimes, Mine cares against your fuites, are stronger then Like to a Bowle vpon a fubile ground Your gates against my force. Yet for I loued thee. I have combled pait the throw , and in his praife Take this along, I writ it for thy fake, And would have fent it. Another word Menenina, Haue (almoft)stampt the Leafing. Therefore Fellow, I must have leaue to passe. I will not heare thee speake. This man Auffiding 2 Faith Sir, if you had told as many lies in his behalfe, Was my belou'd in Rome : yet thou behold'ft. as you have veered words in your owne, you fhould not Auffid. You keepe a constant temper. Exenne paffe heese . no, though it were as vertuous to lye, as to Manes she Guard and Menensu. live chattly. Therefore go backe. 3 Now fir, is your name Menenue? Men.Prythee fellow, remember my name is Menenous, 2 'Tis a spell you see of much power : alwayes factionary on the party of your Generall. You know the way home againe. 3 Howfoeuer you have bin his Lier, as you fay you I Do you heare how wee are flient for keeping your haue, I am one that telling true vider him, muft fay you greatneffe backe ? cannot paffe. Therefore go backe. 2 What caufe do you thinke I have to fwoond? Mene. Ha's he din'd can't thou tell? For I would not Menen. I neither care for th'world, nor your General: for fuch things as you. I can fcarfe thinke ther's any,y'are fpcake with him, till after damer. 1 You are a Roman, are you? fo flight. He that bath a will to die by himfelfe, feares it DOL

The Tragedie of Coriolanus. 27 Betweene the Childe, and Parent. not from another : Let your Generall do his worft. For Corro. What's this? your knees to me? you, bee that you are, long; and your mifery encrease To your Corrected Sonne ? with your age. I fay to you, as I was faid to, Away. Exit Then let the Pibbles on the hungry beach I A Noble Fellow I warrant him. Fillop the Starres : Then, let the mutinous windes The worthy Fellow is our General. He's the Rock, Strike the proud Cedars 'gainst the fiery Sun: The Oake not to be winde-fhaken. Exit Watch. Murd'ring Impolfibility, to make Enter Corsolanus and Auffidius. What cannot be, flight worke. Corio. We will before the walls of Rome to morrow Volum. Thou art my Warriour, I hope to frame thee Set downe our Hoaft. My partner in this Action, Do you know this Lady? You must report to th'Volcian Loids, how plainly Corio. The Noble Silter of Publicola; I haue borne this Businesse. The Moone of Rome: Chafte as the Ificle Auf. Onely their ends you have respected, That's curdied by the Froft, from pureft Snow, Stopt your cares against the generall suite of Rome : And hangs on Dums Temple: Deere Valersa. Neuer admitted a privat whilper, no not with fuch fiends Volum, This is a poore Epitome of yours, That thought them fure of you. Which by th'interpretation of full time, Corio. This laft old man, May thew like all your felfe. Whom with a crack'd heart I have fent to Rome, Corro. The God of Souldiers : Lou'd me, aboue the measure of a Father, With the confent of fupreame Ioue, informe Nay godded me indeed. Their lateft refuge Thy thoughts with Nobleneffe, that thou may f proue Was rolend him : for whole old Loue I have To fhame vnvulnerable, and flicke i'th Warres (Though I fnew'd fowrely to him) once more offer'd Like a great Sea-marke ftanding euery flaw, The first Conditions which they did refuse, And fauing those that eye thee. And cannot now accept, to grace him onely Volum. Your knee, Sirrah. That thought he could do more : A very little Corio. That's my braue Boy. I have yeelded too. Fresh Eir baffes, and Suites. Volum. Euen he, your wife, this Ladie, and my felfe, Nor from the State, nor primate friendsheereafter Will I lend eare to. Ha?what fhout is this? Shout within Are Sutors to you. Corio. I befeech you peace: Shall I be tempted to infringe my vow Or if you'ld aske, remember this before; In the fame time 'ris made? I will not. The thing I have for fworne to graunt, may never Enter Virgilia, Volumnia, Valeria, yong Martins, Be held by you denials. Do not bid me with Attendants. Difinisse iny Soldiers, or capitulate My wife comes formoft, then the honour'd mould Againe, with Roines Mechanickes. Tell menot Wherein this Trunke was fram'd, and in her hand Wherein I sceine vnnaturall :Desire not t'allay The Grandchilde to her blood. But out affection, My Rages and Reuenges, with your colder reasons. All bond and priviled ge of Nature breake; Folum, Oh no more, no more: Let it be Vertuous to be Obstinate. You laue faid you will not grant vs any thing: What is that Curt'lie worth? Or those Doues eyes, For we have nothing elfe to aske, but that Which can make Gods for fworne ? I melt, and am not Which you deny already: yet we will aske, Of ftronger earth then others: iny Mother bowes, AsifOlympus to a Mole-hill thould I hat it you faile in our request, the blame May hang vpon your hardnelle, therefore heare vs. In Supplication Nod : and my yong Boy Corro. Auffidius, and you Volces marke, for wee'l Hath an Afpest of intercefsion, which Heare nought from Rome in piluate. Your reques? Great Nature cries, Deny not. Let the Volces Volum. Should we he filent & not ipeak, our Raimene Plough Rome, and harrow Italy. Ile neuer And flate of Bodies would bewray what life Be fach a Gofling to obey inftinct ; but ftand We have led fince thy Exile. Thinke with thy felfe, As if a man were Author of himfelf, & knew no other kin How more vnfortunate then all living women Firgil. My Lord and Husband. Are we come hither ; fince that thy fight, which fhould Corto. These eyes are not the same I wore in Rome. Make our eres flow with ioy, harts dance with comforts, Vorg. The forrow that deliuers vs thus chang'd, Confirames them weepe, and fbake with feare & forow, Makes you thinke fo. Making the Mother, wife, and Childe to fee, Corio. Like a dull Actor now, I haue forgot my part, The Sonne, the Husband, and the Father tearing And I am out, euen to a full Difgrace. Best of my Flesh, Forgiue my Tyranny : but do not fay His Countries Bowels out; and to poore we Thine enmities most capitall : Thou barr'ft vs For that forgiue our Romanes. Oak ile Long as my Exile, fweet as my Reuenge! Our prayers to the Gods, which is a comfort Now by the realous Queene of Heaven, that kiffe That all but we enjoy. For how can we? Alas! how can we, for our Country pray? I carried from thee deare; and my true Lippe Whereto we are bound, together with thy victory : Hath Virgin'd it ere fince. You Gods, 1 pray, Whereto we are bound : Alacke, or we must loofe And the most noble Mother of the world Leaue vnfaluted : Sinke my knee i'th'earth, Kneeles The Countrie our deere Nurse, or else thy person Our comfort in the Country. We must finde Of thy deepe duty, more impression thew An euident Calamity, though we had Then that of common Sonnes Our wish, which fide should win. For either thou Volum. Ohftand vp blett! Whil'ft with no foster Cushion then the Flint Must as a Forraine Recreant be led With Manacles through our streets, or elfe I kneele before thee, and vnproperly Shew duty as miltaken, all this while, Triumphanely treade on thy Countries ruine, And CC 2

The Tragedie of Coriolanus.

And beare the Palme, for having brauely fhed Thy Wife and Childrens blood : For my felfe, Sonne, I purpose not to waite on Fortune, till These warres determine : If I cannot perfwade thee, Rather to shew a Noble grace ro both parts, Then iecke the end of one ; thou fhalt no tooner March to affault thy Country, then to treade (Truit too'r, thou shalt not) on thy Mothers wombe That brought thee to this world. Virg. I, and mine, that brought you forth this boy, To keepe your name living to time. Boy. A shall not tread on me : He run away Till I am bigger, but then 11e fight. Corso. Not of a womans rendernesse to be. Requires nor Childe, nor womans face to see : I have fate too long, Velum. Nay, go not from vs thus: If it were fonthat our request did tend To faue the Romanes, thereby to deflicy The Volces whom you ferue, you might condemne vs As poylonous of your Honour. No, our fuite Is that you reconcile them : While the Volces May fay, this mercy we have flow'd ; the Romanes, This we received, and each in either fide Gue the All-hade to thee, and cry be Bleft For making op this peace. Thou know'll (great Sonne) The end of Warles vncertaine : but this certaine, That if thou conquer Roule, the benefit Which thou fhalt thereby reape, is fulli a name Whole repetition will be dogg'd with Curles Whofe Chronicle that writ, The man was Noble, But with his laft Attempt, he wip'd it out : Deftroy'd his Country, and his name remaines To thinfing Angabhori d. Speake to me Son: Thoub Mart eten the fue frames of Honor, To imitate the graces of the Gods. To teare with Thunder the vide Checkes a th'Ayre, And yet to change thy Sulphure with a Boult That flouid bat rive an Oake. Why do'ft not fpeake? Think's thou it Honourable for a Nobleman Still to icmember wrongs? Diughter, fpeake you : He cares not for your weeping. Speake thou Boy, Perhaps thy childsinneffe will move him more Then can oir Reafons. There s no man in the world More bound to's Mother, yet heere he lec's me prate Like one i th'Stockes. Thou hall neuer in thy life, Shew'd thy deere Mother any curtefie, When the (poore Hen) fond of no fecond brood, Ha's clock'd thee to the Warres : and fafelie home Loden with Honor. Say my Requeft's vniuft, And spurne me backe : But, if it be not fo Thou art not howeft, and the Gods will plague thee That the a refl. an'll from me the Duty, which To a Mothers part belongs. He turnes away : Down L die: let vs fhanie him with him withour knees To his fur-name Coriolanie longs more pride Then pitty to out Prayers. Downe : an end, This is the laft. So, we will home to Rome, And dye among our Neighbours : Nay, behold's, This D. y that cannot tell what he would have, But Freeles, and holds up hands for fellowfhip, Doe's reafon our Petition with more frength Then those haft to deny't. Come, let vs go : This Fellow had a Volcean to his Mother . His Wife is in Corioles, and his Childe Like him by chonce : yet give vs our dispatch :

I am husht vntill our City be afire, & then Ile speak a litle Holds ber by the band filent. Corio. O Mother, Mother ! What have you done? Behold, the Heavens do ope, The Gods looke downe, and this vnnaturall Scene They laugh at. Oh my Mother, Mother : Oh ! You haue wonne a happy Victory to Rome. But for your Sonne, belecue it : Oh belecue it, Moft dangeroufly you have with him preuail'd, If not most mortall to him. But let it come : Auffidine, though I cannot make true Warres, lle frame conuenient peace. Now good Auffidim, Were you in my fleed, would you have heard A Mother leffe? or granted leffe Anffidina ? Auf. I was mou'd withall. Corio. I dare be fweine you were a And fir, it is no little thing to make Mine eyes to fweat compatiton. But (good fir) What peace you'i make, adusle me : For my part, Ile not to Rome, Ile backe with you, and pray you Stand to me in this caufe. Oh Motherl Wife ! Auf I am glad thou haft for thy morey, & thy Honor At difference in thee : Out of that Ile worke My se'le a former Fortune. Co.o. 1 by and by; But we will drinke together : And you fhall beare A better witneffe backe then words, which we On like conditions, will have Counter-feal'd. Conie enter with vs : Ladies you defenie To have a Temple built you : All the Swords In Italy, and her Confederate Armes-Could not have mode this peace. Exenal. Enter Menorise and Sicmine. ftone? Mene. See you you d Com a'th Capitol, yon' I comer Sicin. Why what of that? Mene It it be possible for you to displace it with your little finger, there is tome hope the Ladies of Rome, cfpc-little finger, there is tome hope the Ladies of Rome, effecially his Mother, may preuaile with him. But I fay, there is no hope in't, our throats are fentene'd, and flay yppon execution.

Sicin. Is't pessible, that fo fhort a time can alter the condition of a man.

Mene. There is differency between a Grub & a Burterfly, yet your Butterfly was a Grub : this Marrine, is growne from Man to Dragon. He has wings, hee's more then a creeping thing.

S.c.m. He lou'd his Mother deerely.

More So did he mee : and he no more remembers his Mother now, then an eight yeare old hotle. The tartneffe of his face, fowres ripe Grapes. When he walks, he moues like an Engine, and the ground thrinkes before his Treading. He is able to pierce a Corflet with his eye : Talkes like a knell, and his hum is a Battery. He fits in his State, as a thing inade for Alexander. What he bids bee done, is finisht with his bidding. He wants nothing of a God but Eternity, and a Heauen to Throne in.

Sicin. Yes, mercy, if you report him truly.

Mene. I paint him in the Character. Mark what mercy his Mother shall bring from him : There is no more mercy in him, then there is milke in a male-Tyger, that shall our poore City finde : and all this is long of you.

Sicin. The Gods be good vnto vs.

Mene. No, in fuch a cafe the Gods will not bee good vnto vs. When we banish'd him, we respected not them : and he returning to breake our necks, they respect not vs. Enter a Messer.

Meff.

The Tragedie of	Coriolanus. 29
Mef. Sir, if you'ld faue your life, flye to your House,	We must proceed as we do finde the People.
The Plebeians haue got your Fellow Tribune,	g.Cow. The People will remaine vncertaine, whil and hale him vp and downe ; all fwearing, if	'T wixt you there's difference : but the fall of either he Romane Ladies bring not comfort home	Makes the Survivor heyre of all.
'hey'l giue him death by Inches.	Auf. 1knowit:
Enter another Meffenger.	And my pretext to firike at him, admits
	A good construction. I rais'd him, and I pawn'd
	Mine Honor for his truth : who being fo heighten's Meff. Good Newes, good newes, the Ladies have he Volcians are diflodg'd, and Marsins gone :	He watered his new Plants with dewes of Flattery, merrier day did neuer yer greet Rome,	Seducing formy Friends : and to this end,
c,not th'expulsion of the Targams.	He bow'd his Nature, neuer knowne before,
Sicin. Friend, art thou certaine this is true ?	But to be rough, vnswayable, and free.
s't most certaine.	3. Comfp. Sir, his stoutnesse
Mef. As certaine as I know the Sun is fire :	WI en he did stand for Confull, which he lost
Vhere haue you lurk'd that you make doubt of it :	By lacke of flooping.
e're through an Arch fo hurried the blowne Tide,	Auf. That I would have spoketof:
s the recomforted through th'gates. Why harke you :	Being banish'd for't, he came write my Harth,
Trumpets Hoboyes, Drums beate, altogether.	Pretented to my knife his Throat : I tooke him, he Trumpets, Sack-buts, Pfalteries, and Fifes,	Made him ioynt-fervant with me : Gaue him way
abors, and Symboles, and the fhowting Romans	In all his owne defires : Nay, let him choose
Take the Sunne dance. Hearke you. A [hont within	Out of my Files, his projects, to accomplish
Mene. This is good Newes :	My beft and fresheft men, feru'd his defignements will go meete the Ladies. This Volumnia, white proceed the Labores, July Polymnia,	In mine owne perfon : holpe to reape the Fame
s worth of Confuls, Senators, Patricians,	Which he did end all his; and tooke fome pride
City full : Of Tribunes such as you,	To do my felfe this wrong : Till at the laft
Sea and Land full : you have pray'd well to day :	I feeni'd his Follower, not Partner; and his Morning, for tenthousand of your throates,	He wadg'd me with his Countenance, as if de not haue giuen a doit. Harke, how they ioy.	I had bin Mercenary.
Sound still with the Shents.	1.Con. So he did my Lord:
Sicin. First, the Gods bleffe you for your tydings :	The Army marueyl'd at it, and in the laft, lext, accept my thankefulnesse.	When he had carried Rome, and that we look'd
Meff. Sir, we have all great cause to give great thanks.	For no leffe Spoile, then Glory.
Sicin. They are neere the City.	Auf. There was it :
Mef. Almost at point to enter.	For which my finewes shall be stretcht vpon him,
Com Weellman he is the -
Sicin. We cer meet them, and helpe the ioy. Exempt.	At a few drops of Womens rhewnie, which are
Enter two Soundary with I adam a fing our	As cheape as Lies; he fold the Blood and Labour
Enter two Senators, with Ladres, passing over	Of our great Action; therefore shall he dye, the Stage, with other Lords.	And Ile renew me in his fall But hearke.
Seve Behald and David of 1 tip on	Drummes and Trumpets founds, with great
Sena Behold our Patronnesse, the life of Rome :	lbowts of she people.
all all your Tribes together, praise the Gods,	1. Con. Your Native Towne you enter'd like a Po and make triumphant fires, strew Flowers before them :	And had no welcomes home, but he returnes
Inshoot the noise that Banish'd Martine;	Splitting the Ayre with noyfe.
epeale him, with the welcome of his Mother :	2. Con. And patient Fooles, ry welcome Ladies, welcome.	Whofe children he hath flaine, their bafe throats tes
All. Welcome Ladies, welcome.	With gluing him glory,
A Floarif wild Drummes & Trumpets.	3. Con. Therefore at your vantage,
,	Ere he expresse himselfe, or moue the people
Enter Tullus Auffidius, with Attendants.	With what he would fair lashing fail and a fair
Auf. Go tell the Lords a'th'City, I am heere :	With what he would fay, lethim feele your Sword: Which we will focund when he less along eluer them this Paper : hauing read it,	Which we will fecond, when he lies along id them repayre to th'Market place, where I	After your way. His Tale pronounc'd, fhalt bury uen in theirs, and in the Commons cares	His Rezfons, with his Body.
Vill youch the truth of a truth	Anf. Say no more. Heere come the Lords,
Vill vouch the truth of it. Him I accule :	Enter the Lords of the Cuy.
'he City Ports by this hath enter'd, and	All Lords. You are most welcome home, ntends t'appeare before the People, hoping	Auff. I have not deferu'd it.
o purge nimielte with words. Dispatch.	But worthy Lords, haue you with heede peruled
Enter 3 or 4 Conferators of Anffidius Faction	What I have written to you?
iou victome.	All. We have.
1. Con. How is it with our Generall ?	Lord. And greeve to heate't:
Auf. Euch fo, as with a man by his owne Almesim-	What faults he made before the laft, I thinke by los a, and with his Charity flaine.
2. Con. Most Noble Sir, If you do hold the fame intent	Might have four d eafie Fines : But there to end
Vherein you wisht vs parties : Wee'l deliuer you	Where he was to begin, and give away
fyour great danger.	The benefit of our Leuies, answering vs
Auf. Sir, I cannot tell,	With our owne charge : making a Treatie, where
	There was a yeelding; this admits no excule.

2 The second 20 Anf. He sppronches, you shall hears him un marching with Dramme, and Colours. The Commoners being with him. Enter Coriola Corio. Haile Lords, I am return'd your Souldier : No more infected with my Countries loue Then when I parted hence : but full fubfifting Vuder your great Command. You are to know, That prosperously I have attempted, and With bloody paffage led your Wattes, euen to The gates of Rome : Our spoiles we have brought home Doth more then counterpoize a full third part The charges of the Action. We have made peace With no leffe Honor to the Antiates Then fhame to th'Romaines. And we here deliver Subscrib'd by'th'Confuls, and Patricians, Together with the Seale a'th Senat, what We have compounded on. Anf. Read it not Noble Lords, But tell the Traitor in the highest degree He hath abus'd your Powers. Corio. Traitor? How now? Asf. I Traitor, Martine. Corso, Martins? Anf. 1 Martsus, Caine Martine : Do'A thou thinke Ile grace thee with that Robbery, thy fiolne name Coriolania in Corioles ? You Lords and Heads a'th'State, perfidioufly He ha's betray'd your businesse, and given vp For certaine drops of Salt, your City Rome : I fay your City to his Wife and Mother, Breaking his Oath and Refolution, like A twift of rotten Silke, neuer admitting Counfaile a'ch'warre : But at his Nurses teares He whin'd and roar'd away your Victory, That Pages bluth'd at him, and men of heart Look'd wond'ring each at others. Corso. Hear'ft thou Mars? Auf. Name not the God, thou boy of Teares. Corvo, Ha? Aufid. No more.

Corro. Meafureleffe Lyar, thou haft made my leart Too great for what containes it. Boy? Oh Slaue, Pardon me Lords, 'tis the first time that ever I was fore'd to feoul'd. Your indgments my grave Lords Must give this Curre the Lye : and his owne Notion, Who weares my stripes imprest voon him, that Must beare my beating to his Grave, shall soyne To thrust the Lye vote him.

1 Lord. Peace both, and heare me speake. Corio. Cut me to peeces Volces men and Lads, Staine all your edges on me. Boy, false Hound : If you have writ your Annales true, 'tis there, That like an Eagle in a Doue-coat, I

The Tregedie of Coriolanus. Flatter'd your Volcians in Carieks. Alone I did it, Boy Auf. Why Noble Lords, Will you be put in minde of his blinde Forme, Which was your shame, by this vnholy Breggart? 'Fore your owne eyes, and eares ? All Confp. Let him dye for't. All People. Teare him to peeces, do it prefently : He kill'd my Sonne, my daughter, he kill'd my Cofine Marcas, he kill'd my Father. 2 Lord. Peacehoe : no outrage, peace : The man is Noble, and his Fame folds in This Orbe o'th'earth : His last offences to vs Shall have Indicious hearing. Stand Auffidme, And trouble not the peace. Corso. O that I had him, with fix Anffidinffes, or more : His Tribe, to vie my lawfull Sword. Auf. Infolent Villeine. All Confp. Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill him. Draw both the Confpirators, and kils Marismo, who falles, Auffidim stands on him. Lords. Hold, hold, hold, hold. Auf. My Noble Masters, heare me speake. 1. Lord. O Tulliss. 2. Lord. Thou haft done a deed, whereat Valour will weepe. 3 Lord. Tread not vpon him Mafters, all be quiet, Put vp your Swords. Auf. My Lords, When you shall know (as in this Rage Prouok'd by him, you cannot) the great danger Which this mans life did owe you, you'l resoyce That he is thus cot off. Please it your Honours To call me to your Senate, Ile deliuer My selfe vour loyall Seruant, or endure Your heauieft Centure. 1. Lord. Beare from hence his body, And mourne you for him. Let him be regarded As the most Noble Coarse, that ever Herald Did follow to his Vrne, 2. Lord. His owne impatience, Takes from Aufficient a great part of blame : Let's make the Belt of st. Auf. My Rage is gone, And I am ftrucke with forrow. Take him vp : Helpe three s'th cheefest Souldiers, lle be one. Beste shou the Drumme that is speake mournfully . Traile your steele Pikes. Though in this City hee Hath widdowed and vnchilded many a one, Which to this houre bewaile the Iniury, Yethe shall have a Noble Memory. Affist. Exempt bearing the Body of Martnes. A dead March Sounded.

FINIS.